MIDNIGHT.

CONGRESS.

Debate on Sales of Arms to France Continued—William and Mary College—Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23, 1872.

SENATE.

TERRITORIAL RIGHTS.

Mr. SPRAGUE presented resolutions of the Legislature of Rhode Island protesting against interference with the inhabitants of the Indian Territory.

ABOLISHING STOCK GAMBLING.

Mr. TRUMBULL, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to abolish stock gambling.

BILLS PASSED.

On motion of Mr. SHERMAN, a bill was passed to prohibit individuals and corporations from using notes or bills as circulating mediums. The bill aimed especially at railroad companies in the South, who were using small notes, thus setting up an authorized banking system.

On motion of Mr. SUMNER, a bill was passed to provide for the survey of the harbor and the river at Washington, D.C.

BILLS REPORTED.

Mr. CHANDLER, from the Committee on Commerce, reported the following bills with amendments: authorizing the construction of railroad bridges across the Ohio river at Mount Vernon and near Evansville, Indiana; establishing, in connection with the district of Duluth, and creating St. Paul a port of delivery.

BRIDGING THE MISSISSIPPI.

A bill was introduced by Mr. BLAIR authorizing a bridge over the Missouri river at Brownsville, Mo.

SALES OF ARMS AGAIN.

The resolution to investigate the alleged sales of arms to the French came up.

Mr. COLE endeavored to have a final vote taken at 5 P. M., but Senator TRUMBULL took the floor and addressed the Senate. He said every effort at reform in this body was met by assaults upon those who make the effort by aspersions upon their motives and by charges of bad party faith.

Mr. Trumbull continued: Questions affecting the purity of the Government and the welfare of the public are, in the opinion of some members of this body, who assume to be the exponents of the Republican party, no longer to be decided on their merits, but only with a view to their bearings on the party. Chief among those who would subordinate the public welfare to party stands the Senator from Indiana (Morton). In the discussion of the resolution under consideration he has devoted two or three hours to assaults on those who have felt it to be their duty to move this investigation; and not content with that, he has taken occasion to wander away from the subject and talk about a Senatorial cabal. I do not know by what authority any member of this body assumes to be the peculiar exponent of the Republican party, or even of the administration. I wish to say something in reply to the repeated assaults that have been made by those who assume to be better Republicans than their fellow Senators. I intend to show the course of these Senators, and before I have done, unless I misunderstand what the principles of the Republican party are, I think I shall be able to show that he who stands foremost here on all occasions to denounce others as assaulting the party has himself forgotten the principles on which the Republican party was founded, and is himself at war with them.

Mr. Trumbull then reviewed the course of the majority in the Senate on the question of removing Mr. Sumner from the chairmanship of the Committee on Foreign Relations, on the resolution to investigate the management of the New York Custom House, and on the pending resolution, and insisted that on each and all these questions the majority had avowedly acted, not with reference to right or wrong involved, but wholly with reference to the supposed interests of the party. The Senator from Indiana (Mr. Morton), in speaking of the position Sumner held, boldly said that the question was not as to the propriety of the act, but was whether the majority intended to stand by the organization and usages of the party. That was a standard of duty for Senators acting under oath. When it was proposed to investigate the abuses in the New York Custom House, the Senator from Indiana did all he could to defeat it; but now he boasts that it has vindicated itself from the suspicion that it was a whitewashing committee. That committee had not yet made its report, and he (Trumbull) would not assail it; but its conduct in making the investigations was public, and was somewhat remarkable. Witnesses who testified that the Custom House officers had interfered with the Legislature of New York, were asked whether they were not there themselves for the same purpose, as if the people had not a right to take part in politics, and as if the committee could call the people to account for their political action. He had seen it stated, too, that notice had been given that witnesses brought before the committee for the purpose of exposing corruption and malfeasance in office were themselves to be prosecuted—a good way to encourage witnesses to testify! Again, on the pending resolution the same old cry of "party, party," had been raised, and the Senators who moved the resolution were threatened with fine and imprisonment. He would not comment on the motives of the Senators, but the people were thoroughly aroused against fraud and corruption everywhere, and they would understand the motives of these Senators very well.

The Senator from Indiana had denounced the platform of the Liberal Republicans as anti-Republican and essentially Democratic, and he would now undertake to show that the man who held that view did not know the meaning of Republicanism. He then went over the resolutions in the platform one by one, and insisted that they were all in complete accord with the principles of the Republican party. They were principles he had contended for through all his public life, and, God helping him, he would contend for them to the end.

Mr. MORTON said Mr. Trumbull had come into the Senate with a prepared speech, containing two things: an assault upon him (Morton), and a defense of the Liberal Republican movement and its platform. It was unnecessary for him to show further than he had shown already, that that was a movement designed to divide and defeat the Republican party. He was sorry that Mr. Trumbull had identified himself with it; but as he had done so, others could not do less than recognize the fact. Mr. Trumbull had pretended that there was no evidence that the Cincinnati Convention was to make a nomination for the Presidency. He (Morton) thought there was no doubt about that; but he would have the Secretary read from a speech of Gov. Gratz Brown, of Missouri, the leader of the movement, to show that a nomination was to be made by that Convention. Gov. Brown, in that speech, delicately intimated that he expected the nomination himself, but at the same time expressed a willingness to stand aside for a stronger man from another quarter, and he (Morton) believed it was generally understood that Senator Trumbull was to be the candidate. The people generally understood that the Senator had stepped out of the Republican party—stepping, however, within easy returning distance—and was standing with his back all chalked over, "Barkis is willin'." [Laughter.]

Mr. Morton reiterated his statement that the Liberal Republican platform was essentially Democratic, and that he based his criticism on a resolution which declared the Ku-Klux law unconstitutional. He said there was still rebellion in the South, and he believed more men had been killed and wounded by Ku-Klux during the last four years than were killed in the war of 1812.

Mr. Morton then criticised Trumbull's votes on amnesty, and insisted that if he and Tipton had voted for the bill as amended, instead against it, it would have passed by a three-fourths vote. Senator Trumbull talked much about civil service reform, but he had been informed to-day that that very Senator had made one hundred and three recommendations to office since this administration came into power.

Mr. TRUMBULL said he had no means of knowing exactly how many he had made, but he was satisfied that in the last five years he had not made a dozen recommendations, and that there were no men in office who had been placed there by his request.

Mr. MORTON said he was authorized to say that Trumbull had made one hundred and three recommendations.

Mr. TRUMBULL said he would like to see the evidence.

Mr. MORTON said Trumbull had charged that Morton had attempted to defeat the investigation by raising a cry of "party." That charge was not true; but he acknowledgnd that he was a party man. A party was an instrument for the enforcement of principles which he believed to be necessary for the salvation and preservation of the country.

Mr. Morton claimed that Trumbull always had been a party man, and had received at the hands of the Republican party the highest honor that could be conferred, with the exception of the Presidency; and now, if he wished to desert that party, he wished to know it. If he intends to come forward and support the nominee of the 5th of June, now is a good time to say it. As I said the other day, I don't want to be cheated, and I don't want my party to be cheated. Breckenridge and Slidell, having decided to go into rebellion, staid behind in this chamber to betray the Government and country. I hope their example will not be followed by others. If they mean to leave us, I can bid them a kind good-bye; but I am not willing that they shall remain and fight us from our own camp.

Mr. NYE obtained the floor, but yielded to a motion to go into executive session.

The Senate went into executive session, and soon after adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.

PETITIONS.

Mr. GETZ presented a petition for a law licensing distillers according to their capacity.

Mr. L. MYERS presented a petition of Philadelphians, asking the erection of Government buildings in that city.

APPROPRIATION BILL.

The consular and diplomatic appropriation bill came up.

Mr. VOORHEES spoke against it, because it contained an appropriation for a Consul at Havana. He spoke of Spain as being a brutal, bloody power, against which the Cubans revolted, being supported therein by the sympathies of the people of the United States. The struggle in Cuba during the last three years has been almost unparalleled. Although Spain had in 1869 107,000 soldiers in Cuba, and fifty-seven vessels of war in Cuban waters, it was given out by the State Department here that the struggle was not worthy of notice.

Mr. Voorhees said he did not speak for the annexation of Cuba, but for the recognition of her independence. Why the United States allowed Spain to insult the American flag and not retaliate, was more than he could say. He had a list of eight peaceful American citizens who had been shot in cold blood in Cuba, and nineteen who were languishing in Cuban prisons. Others had their property confiscated. The American name and authority had been treated with supreme contempt. He referred to the execution of students and to the last decree of Valmaseda, which, he said, was one of extermination. Even poor, disordered Mexico had acknowledged the belligerent rights of the Cubans, while this country, with all its boasted power, hearing the dogs of war rending the flesh and crushing the bones of their victims, was silent. It was a sad, a miserable spectable—a most pitiful spectacle—and what made it still worse was that within three months after the first gun was fired on Fort Sumter, Spain had recognized the belligerent rights of the Southern Confederacy.

Mr. GARFIELD hoped the House would be very slow to take any measure in regard to Cuba, to Spain, to Great Britain, or to any other nation with which we are now at peace, to harrass and irritate and deepen the angry feelings which already existed.

Mr. BANKS said that he did not anticipate any trouble with Great Britain, or with Spain; but he declared that the best way to secure peace was the assertion of our rights and preparation to defend them. He had listened to the gentleman from Indiana (Voorhees) with great pleasure, and he heartily coincided with most of his views; but if the House wanted to break off our relations with Spain, it should strike at the Minister of Spain, and our Consul in Cuba.

The debate being closed, Mr. HOLMAN moved to strike out the enacting clause. Rejected by 9 to 110.

Amendments advancing the Russian mission to first class, the Japanese mission to second class, and reducing the Central American missions to one minister at Nicaragua, were severally agreed to. The bill was passed.

WILLIAM AND MARY COLLEGE.

The House went into Committee of the Whole and took up the bill to reimburse the College of William and Mary in Virginia, for property destroyed during the war by disorderly soldiers of the United States.

Mr. STRONG opposed the bill, and stated that out of one hundred and three Democratic members only eleven had voted for the bill to extend education to poor Unionists of the South, and now they were all found voting solidly for this treasonable and aristocratic institution, and establishing a precedent which would take hundreds of millions out of the Treasury.

Messrs. Blair (Mich.), Farnsworth, Garfield and Stoughton opposed the bill.

The committee rose without taking action, and the House adjourned. The session to-morrow is for general debate only.

CHICAGO.

The Western Snow Blockade.

CHICAGO, February 23.—The first passengers who reached this city from San Francisco, by railroad for the past twenty eight days, arrived here last night at eleven o'clock They numbered about one hundred and fifty, and came from Omaha, via the Rock Island road. They denounce the managers of the Union Pacific railroad in the most emphatic language for the bad treatment they claim to have received at their hands. They left Ogden on the 2d inst., and reached Green river without having encountered but little snow. At Green river the train stopped, and none could induce those in charge to to go ahead. The passengers were obliged to pass the time as best they could.

Governor Potts telegraphed to San Francisco advising the people not to come East by the railroad, as it was blocked by snow. He received as an answer from one of the officers of the Union Pacific Railroad Company a request to contradict the statement, or his pass would be revoked. He refused to do so, and bought a ticket. At the expiration of thirteen days the passengers got aboard the train and started for Butler Creek, sixty one miles, which they reached without interruption. Between Separation and Simpson's there were several snow drifts, and pathways had to be dug through the snow. They were eighteen days going from Ogden to Simpson's Hill, a distance of two hundred and sixty seven miles. At the latter place they encountered an immense snow drift, at which all the passengers worked for eight or ten hours. At Medicine Bow they encountered seven westward-bound trains, and seven or eight hours were exhausted in switching past them.

There was no suffering on the trains, every one having plenty to eat, except on one of the western bound trains, on which the passengers suffered from hunger and would have starved had not Mr. Sailor, who is about starting a restaurant at Green River, opened two car loads of provisions and permitted the hungry crowd to take what they wanted.

UTAH.

State Admission Convention.

SALT LAKE, February 23.—There was great excitement in the convention to-day on the passage of section 5 of the ordinance, which argued that the terms prescribed by Congress as a condition precedent to admission, if ratified by a majority at the time and under the regulations presented by this canon, shall thereupon constitute this ordinance. Many delegates strongly opposed it. The Mormons were generally indignant at being forced to sacrifice their hobbies of polygamy and religion. The resolution was finally passed through the efforts mainly of Prophet Fitch and Elder Cannon, who are accused by the Mormons to be influenced by the most mercenary motives.

VICEROY OF INDIA.

Although the appointment of Lord Northbrook to the Viceroyship of India has been pronounced premature, there is but little doubt that it will ultimately be made. The Marquis of Landsdowne will probably succeed Lord Northbrook as Under Secretary of State for War.

AFRICAN DIAMOND FIELDS.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—The mail steamer from the Cape of Good Hope has arrived. Encouraging reports from the diamond fields continued to reach Cape Town. Diamonds were selling at auction at a decline of twenty-five per cent. on the prices reported by the previous steamer. Good order has been restored among the miners. Several persons who were prominent in lynching operations had been arrested and punished.

The royalist manifesto, on which the hopes of a fusion of the Legitimist and Orleanist parties is based, is still circulating among the members of the Right in the Assembly for additional signatures. The document has not been printed, and its terms are kept secret. The prime leaders in the movement have addressed a note to the journals, stating that the publication of the document is withheld at present in order to prevent agitation, that the list of signatures is increasing, and that when the crisis comes the party will be found ready.

WASHINGTON, February 23, 1872.

GRANVILLE'S NOTE.

The contents of Earl Granville's note have not yet officially transpired, and are therefore conjectural. It is known, however, that Secretary Fish has prepared a draft in reply.

The note of the Earl of Granville was sent to Secretary Fish, through General Schenck. It was read to the cabinet to-day. A general conversation ensued, continuing several hours, in which the merits of the questions presented concerning the interpretation of the treaty of Washington were discussed. There may be a further conference on the subject when the reply of the Secretary of State to the friendly note shall have been prepared. While this Government does not seem disposed to modify its statement of the case, it will doubtless respond to the British objections in such a spirit as will show an earnest desire for the settlement of the questions at issue, in a manner altogether honorable to both nations, through the tribunal of arbitrators provided by the treaty. This is known to be the desire of the President and members of the Cabinet.

An application was made to-day for a copy of the British note for publication, but without success, the refusal being based on the ground that to furnish it would not only be against precedent, but disrespectful to the British Government at this stage of the proceedings; and it was further said to-night, by a high executive officer, that not even the substance of the British note could be communicated through an official source, nor had it been repeated to any private parties. At the same time it was remarked that as the note was of a friendly character, and couched in delicate language, and as the reply would be in a like temper, there was therefore no cause whatever for apprehension as to continuance of peace between the two countries.

Hon. Charles Francis Adams remained at the Executive Mansion but a short time after the Cabinet assembled, having spent a few minutes in conversation with them.

INTERNAL REVENUE DECISIONS.

The following Internal Revenue decisions have been rendered: First—Commissioner Douglas decides that the issue of interest certificates to the amount of $23,036,000 on the ninteenth of December, 1869, by the New York Central Railroad Company is substantialy a scrip dividend, and taxable under the Internal Revenue laws. Second—That the admission of the company, made and yet of record when said certificates were issued, that they were based on the earnings of the road and the expenditures of the company, equal in amount to 80 per cent. of the stock of the company, $23,036,000 being the amount of scrip dividend as binding, and not be disregarded against the rights of the Government, though subsequently contradicted by the testimony of the counsel of the company, that the commissioner in the matter of admissions and contradictory explanations has the power of a court to judge of and accept or reject explanatory evidence. Third—That only such earnings, incomes, gains or profits as are represented after September, 1862, the date of the first income tax law, are liable to taxation. Fourth—That the measure of valuation for the taxation of scrip dividends is generally the market value; but that where, by the admission of the company, scrip actually represents dollar for dollar of its face, then the valuation thus solemnly given by the company will prevail in adjusting taxation. Fifth—That as much dividend as belongs to the period from September, 1862, to September, 1868, is to be taxed. In this case the dividend, covering in the time of fifteen years, earnings, &c., six-fifteenths of the whole being the proportionate amount between 1862 and 1868, is what must be taxed. In this case six-fifteenths amount to $9,215,400, on which a tax of five per cent. should be collected.

NORTH CAROLINA VACANT SENATORSHIP.

Senator Logan is engaged in preparing a report for himself and Senators Morton and Thurman against the claim of Gen. Abbot to the vacant seat from North Carolina, and Senator Carpenter, for himself and Mr. Rice, is preparing a minority report in favor of Abbot. The credentials of Governor Vance have never been before the Committee on Elections and Privileges. When this case is disposed of the question concerning the validity of the choice of Gen. Ransom by the Legislature will next be considered. It is anticipated that this subject will occasion a prolonged debate in the Senate.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

An area of low barometer will probably move east-ward over Indiana and Michigan to the lower lakes on Saturday, preceded by brisk south-west winds, extending on Friday night to New York and Kentucky, with increasing cloudiness and possibly light rain prevail on the Gulf coast on Saturday, and south east winds and cloudy weather prevail from Georgia to Massachusetts. Dangerous winds are not anticipated for Friday night on the Atlantic coast, but north easterly gales are probable for Lake Superior, and a severe local storm is indicated for San Francisco.

ENDOWING AGRICULTURAL COLLEGES.

A bill was introduced by Senator Morrill, of Vermont, to-day, and referred to the Committee on Education and Labor, appropriating to each State in which agricultural colleges have been established, in accordance with the law of 1862, one million acres of public lands for their further endowment and support. No mineral lands are to be taken under this act.

NOMINATIONS CONFIRMED.

The Senate in executive session to-day confirmed the following nominations: Henry A. Eastman, Register of Land Office at Prescott, Arizona; John G. Gazman, Agent for Sioux Indians in Dakota; Geo. P. Tucker, Receiver of Public Moneys at Lincoln, Nebraska; Cushman K. Davis, U. S. Attorney for Minnesota; De Forrest Porter, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona.

CALLS ON THE PRESIDENT.

The President returned this morning. During the forenoon he was waited upon by the Chicago Relief Committee who called to pay their respects, half an hour before the Cabinet meeting. Secretary Fish, accompanied by Charles Francis Adams, had an interview with the President on the Geneva Conference.

CABINET MEETING.

The Cabinet remained in session until three o'clock, all the members remaining until the close. Nothing is yet known regarding the proceedings other than the fact that the Queen's message had been laid before the meeting, and that there was a long consultation thereon.

REVIVAL OF COMMERCE.

Representatives Shellabarger, of Ohio, Sheldon, of Louisiana, Sawyer, of Wisconsin, Lynch, of Maine, and Townsend of New York, constitute a sub-committee of commerce to prepare a bill for the revival of American commerce.

MARCH INTEREST.

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the payment of interest due March 1st on ten-forties from Monday next, without rebate.

FORTIFICATION APPROPRIATION.

The House Committee on Appropriations to-day completed the fortifications bill, appropriating nearly two million dollars.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, February 22, 1872.

MORE INVESTIGATION WANTED.

Now that the Conkling amendment to the proposed sale of arms investigation has passed the Senate, requiring an investigation into the conduct of Senators, it will be opportune to have an explicit statement from Senator Trumbull regarding a contract of his with President Johnson, by which he appears to have violated the law and pocketed $10,000 just prior to giving his vote to save his liberal friend from impeachment.

Mr. Johnson employed Mr. Trumbull as counsel in the case of ex parte McCardle and the State of Georgia against George G. Meade and others, in the Supreme Court of the United States, agreeing to pay him a fee of ten thousand dollars for his services in said case, such a contract for services was a direct violation of the law by both the parties to the contract, the law of April 21st, 1868, section two; making it a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $3,000 for any member of Congress to enter into any such contract with any United States officer, and section 5 of the same act making it a misdemeanor for any officer to make such a contract.

That such a contract was made there is not a shadow of doubt, and the evidence of it can be found by any committee wishing to see it. It is not known that Mr. Trumbull rendered any positive or valuable service in those cases before the court, but Mr. Johnson was a liberal paymaster, and did not hesitate on that account to pay over the money. It was paid as follows:

March 7, 1868	$ 1,000
April 16, 1868	2,000
April 23, 1868	7,000
	$10,000

By referring to the dates it will be seen that those payments were made during the pendency of the impeachment trial, and all within about two months of the day the vote was taken on impeachment in the Senate.

The country knows how Mr. Trumbull voted to acquit the man who had been so liberal toward him in the above contract.

If the Senate of the United States is really desirous of ferreting out official misdemeanors, I submit that here is a good place to go to work. By the laws above cited the Senator was guilty of a misdemeanor the punishment of which is a fine of three thousand dollars and the voiding of the contract. It is a fine opportunity to unmask a hypocrite—punish a crime and cover thirteen thousand dollars into the Treasury.

President Grant unites with all other good Republicans in a desire to see the most searching investigations into every species of fraud and corruption, and has shown his determination to exert all his official power to correct abuses, and punish unfaithful officers. Let the Senators who seek to create the impression that the President is cognizant of any existing corruption which it is in his power to correct show as clean a record as he is showing, and the country will be content.

But let not the investigation stop at any supposed improper acts of the administration. Let the Senate purge itself at the same time of members who have been guilty of frauds, speculations, or other illegal acts.

SUMNER COUCHANT.

Senators Morton and Conkling have pressed the controversy regarding the designs of Schurz & Co., with such logic and vigor that Sumner has already come down from the high stand originally taken by him in the sale of arms investigation. Finding that the allegations of his preamble, which was placed in his hands by Carl Schurz for effect, had proved to be absolutely false, so far as known, he yesterday asked to withdraw it from the Senate. A Senator objected, and it could not be withdrawn. Mr. Sumner's tone is quite meek, as he finds himself in bad company, which does not hesitate to impose upon his credulity. It seems shameful that the bright fame of the great Sumner should be thus tarnished by dashing it in the muddy waters of President making, and the defilement of personal malignity. The country has a right to own him in the capacity of the great American champion of right, the pure statesman and the magnanimous orator, but through the furore of passion, the seduction of adulation, the whisperings of earthly ambition or the sadder fate of a great mind decayed before it passes away from the view of admiring millions, our grand Sumner of the past is fast merging into the seedy politician and becoming, alas, a garrulous old polonius, whose wisdom seldom gleams through dreams of his own personal importance.

TELEGRAPH PROTEST.

A pamphlet remonstrance of the Union Telegraph Company against the postal telegraph bill has been presented to Congress. The company remonstrate against a scheme which gives a million dollars to create a new monopoly, under pretense of checking an existing one.

To designate as a monopoly a postal telegraph conducted by national authorities in a government "of the people, by the people, and for the people," is an absurdity that the people will not be slow to discover. The interests of all are represented by the Government is illustrated in the present post office management. If this is the definition of monopoly, instead of the aggregation of the interests of the many in the hands of the few, it will be necessary for the Western Union Teleraph Company to issue a revised edition of Webster's dictionary along with their pamphlet.

GRANT AND FORNEY.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says that "there is no longer room to doubt" that Mr. Creswell, the Postmaster General, is to give up his place in the Cabinet to Col. John W. Forney. The President goes to Philadelphia to return Col. Forney's recent visit to him, and things political, it is thought, look very much like his entering the Cabinet at an early day.

GRANT AND COLFAX DELEGATES.

The Republican convention for the District of Columbia last night selected Alexander R. Shepherd and John F. Cooke delegates and Frederich A. Boswell, and A. M. Green alternates; to the Philadelphia National Republican Convention—Cooke and Green are colored. Resolutions were passed endorsing Grant and Colfax, and declaring preference for their re-nomination.

PACIFIC RAILROAD SQUATTERS.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company having had some trouble with "squatters" on land allotted by the grant of the Government, have appealed to the Committee on Public Lands, through their attorney, Hon. Benjamin F. Wade, to cause additional legislation to be made to secure them the land thus occupied.

COLORED JURORS.

A delegation of colored men from Baltimore, Md., visited the Attorney General yesterday, complaining that none of their race had been allowed to act as jurors in the United States Courts of that State. The Attorney General promised to look into the matter and redress their wrongs.

The Republican Convention, so far as heard from, have declared for Grant, including Maine, Ohio, Kansas and the District of Columbia.

A Mr. Prince, of this city, yesterday obtained a verdict for $3,000 damages against the Washington Evening Star, for a libel published in its columns injurious to plaintiff's business.

The Board of Public Works propose to cause to be laid during the coming season about 250,000 square yards of wood pavement, and the cheapest proposition for preserving the wood looks to the expenditure of $62,500 for that purpose alone.

LEGISLATURES.

Kansas.

TOPEKA, February 23.—The House took up the Senate amendment to the House bill apportioning the State, and refused to concur, and tabled a motion asking for a Conference Committee. The Committee of the Whole consented and recommended the passage of a bill providing for the registration of county, city and township bonds with the State Auditor, and the payment of interest on them by the State agents. It also provides that all bonds heretofore issued may be registered, and limits the amount of bonds to be issued.

—A fire occurred at Monticello, N. Y., on Wednesday night, destroyed the post office, a drug store and two dwellings. Loss $30,000.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Railway Bridge Gives Way.

A TRAIN WRECKED.

Two Persons Killed.

FIFTY-TWO WOUNDED.

List of the Victims.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 23.—A bridge on the Louisville Short Line broke to-day. It was of iron and wood, known as the Fenck Suspension Truss. It was twenty-five feet high and seventy feet span. It rested on two stone abutments, and had been considered safe. A train reached the bridge at 11:20 A. M., running about twenty miles an hour. The locomotive passed over safely only before the structure went down, carrying with it two passenger coaches, the tender, baggage, express and mail car, and piling all together in one mass of ruin below. The front passenger car was reduced to splinters, while the others fared but little better. The fragments of the front car were soon in flames, but by the promptness of Dallas Pulam, the engineer, they were subdued.

About sixty-five passengers were on board. Of this number two were killed and fifty two wounded. Surgeons and supplies went from Covington at one o'clock in the afternoon, and a locomotive followed with other surgeons a short time later. The wounded were cared for and placed on cars.

The passengers say the wounded were heaped in a horrid mass, and that the scene that followed was exciting in the extreme. The wounded passengers joined with the citizens from the surrounding country and officers of the train in the work of extricating the bodies.

The killed were Jno. J. Brock, of Sparta, Owen county, Ky., and Harrison Julian, the colored porter of the train. Both were badly mutilated. The mail agent was wounded; not badly. A train took the wounded as soon as possible to Covington, arriving at half-past six this evening.

The list of wounded is as follows: S. Halbertson, Brownsville, Tenn; head and shoulder; badly. Mrs. Levi, Columbus, Miss; head; badly. Craig Mitchell, Louisville; teeth knocked out; back and head injured badly. N. B. Jacobs, Warsaw, Kentucky; head, hips and legs; badly. Dr. B. F. Tomblinson, Mount Zion, Ky.; arm broke; head hurt badly. Mike Modder, Louisville; slightly. W. Hukill, Louisville, severely on hip. L. B. Vooris, conductor; hurt all over; tongue bit nearly in two; a stove fell on him. J. P. Mosely, Lagrane, Ky.; slightly. Samuel Fox, Cincinnati. Henry Klodzpack, Newport, Kentucky; badly. Maggie Powers, Perry county, Ohio; severely. Frank Dammert, Portsmouth, Ohio; badly. Robert Steward, Canton, Miss.; severe. Andy Pierron, Portsmouth, Ohio; hip and head. P. M. Kent, Cincinnati; head; badly. J. S. Scroggin, Bagdad, Ky.; back, leg and arm. J. W. Hawee, New Liberty, Ky.; shoulder and side. Stephen Allen, New Orleans; slightly. Mrs. O'Dell, breast and back; two children of same, both hurt; one only slightly. Nellie Clark, Chillicothe, Ohio; slightly. Carrie McGhee, Lincoln Furnace, O.; slightly. Wm. Clark, Chillicothe, O.; leg crushed. J. L. Tefft, Oakland Station, Ky.; slightly. J. S. Ledman, express messenger; slightly. T. J. Martindale and wife, Racine, Wis.; severely. S. Bull and wife, Racine, Wis.; severely. M. Shay, Covington; badly. C. A. Coffin, Cleveland, Ohio; face cut; breast injured. Frederick Shaffer, Cincinnati, O.; slightly. A. E. Hewitt, Derby, Conn.; slightly. Chas. B. Degraff and Mrs. John Degraff, Winona, Minn., and Mr. Ira Degraff, Winona, Minn.; all slightly. J. B. Martin, Mail Agent, Louisville; badly. Preston Childs, Covington; badly. Wm. P. Sawyers; slightly. Wm. Tulle; badly. Thomas Gagle, New Liberty, Kentucky; severely. Samuel Maddox, Poplar Grove, Ky.; badly. Colvin Maddox, same place; badly. E. C. McMichael, Anchorage, Ky.; severely. James M. Hall, bridge carpenter; slightly. J. S. Todd, Louisville; slightly. Mary Martin, Springfield, Ohio; badly; child of same slightly.

When the train with the wounded arrived at Covington, the sufferers were conveyed to hotels and the St. Elizabeth Hospital. Wm. Tull, of Louisville, will probably die. The clothing of many passengers was literally torn from their bodies. Dallas Pullam, the engineer of the train, was the only one who escaped injury.

The cause of the bridge giving way is not explained. Some of the mail and all the newspapers were lost in the fire in the wreck. The Covington and Cincinnati mails were saved.

POLITICAL.

Missouri Republicans.

ST. LOUIS, February 23.—After the adoption of the platform by the Republican Convention at Jefferson City, last night, a band entered the hall playing "The Union Forever." Instantly the whole Convention rose to its feet and the wildest enthusiasm was manifested. Hats were thrown up, cheer after cheer rent the air, and finally all joined in accompanying the band by singing the chorus, following it with "John Brown," the "Star Spangled Banner," and other popular and patriotic airs.

After the adjournment of the Convention the delegates elected to the National Convention assembled, and General Benjamin was elected Chairman, and G. A. Mosier was chosen Secretary. It was agreed to meet at the St. Nicholas Hotel in St. Louis, on Friday, June 1st, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The State Central Committee also met and organized by electing Hon. Henry N. Blow, Chairman; N. M. Harris, Secretary, and Constantine Maguire, Treasurer.

At a late hour several members of the Legislature improvised a serenade to Governor Brown, which was acknowledged by that gentleman in a brief speech.

Ohio State Prohibition Convention.

COLUMBUS, O., February 23.—The Ohio State Prohibition Convention assembled here to-day, and effected a permanent organization by selecting J. A. Spencer, of Cleveland, as President, B. C. Mason, of Lucas county, as Vice President, and Patrick O'Conner, of Trumball county, as Secretary.

Resolutions were adopted endorsing the platform of the National Prohibition Convention of yesterday, and pledging support to the candidates nominated by that Convention. A resolution was also adopted declaring that the time had come when the leading Christian nations should take steps in favor of an international system of permanent arbitration.

The following ticket was nominated: For Secretary of State, Ferd. Schumaker, of Summit county; for Supreme Judge, Charles Marsh, of Cuyhoga county; for Member of Board of Public Works, Milton Kennedy, of Sciota county.

After naming the Presidential electors, one for each district, and choosing a State Central Committee, the Convention adjourned sine die.

Labor Reform.

2 P. M.—The following dispatch has been just received from Judge Davis

Washington, D. C., February 22.—E. M. Chamberlin, President of the National Labor Reform Convention—Be pleased to thank the Convention for the unexpected honor conferred upon me. The Chief Magistracy of the republic should neither be sought or declined by an American citizen.—Signed, David Davis.

—A Washington dispatch says that the note of Lord Granville on the Alabama question is addressed to Minister Schenck. It is exceedingly amicable in tone, and elaborate and profuse in the expression of the British to preserve the treaty, and establish friendly relations between the two Governments. The burden of the communication is a repetition of the views expressed in the speech from the throne. The reply will show that there has been no surprise in the matter of the American case, and that the claims for consequential damages had been presented for discussion before the Joint High Commissioners. This being so, there can be no withdrawal of the American case.

NEW YORK.

Quarantine Corruption.

More Tammany Frauds Exposed—Comparative Cotton Statement.

NEW YORK, February 23, 1872.

QUARANTINE CORRUPTION.

It was shown in the Quarantine investigation yesterday that enormous charges had been made for the assistance which ship agents were compelled to receive from the agents of the Quarantine Department, and that bribes of various kinds always facilitated the inspection of vessels. It was also testified that the Quarantine property was undersold.

In the Quarantine investigation to-day, L. S. Pond, one of the directors of a steamship company whose vessels run to Havana, testified that under the present Quarantine officers delays and expenses are much heavier than ever before. He thought the present health officer released all vessels from quarantine as soon as possible—that is, as soon as had made all the money he could. Experienced lighter men offer to do lighterage for half of what is now charged. The result of these Quarantine exactions has been a loss to this port annually of 400,000 hogsheads of sugar, which have been taken to Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Mr. Pond stated that he considered the lighterage business at Quarantine a swindle on the merchants from beginning to end; had no doubt Dr. Carnochan reaped a share of the swindle, and the community was plundered right and left.

D. K. Norval, shipmaster, testified to extortion in the towing of one of his vessels by Quarantine tug boats.

J. S. Blanke testified to doing police, coachman's, groomsman's and messenger's duties for Dr. Cornochan; also to collecting fares on Quarantine steamboats when taking passengers to the city and handing the money to Dr. Carnochan.

COMPARATIVE COTTON STATEMENT.

Total net receipts from September 1, 1871, 2,182,230, against 2,626,897 last year. Total export this year, 1,269,710, against 1,616,222 last year. Stock at United States ports this year 570,568; last year 697,056; at interior towns this year 874,060, last year 118,170; at Liverpool this year 566,000, last year 764,000. American cotton afloat for Great Britain this year, 160,000; last year, 260,000.

TAMMANY FRAUDS.

It appears that an examination of the accounts of the Bureau of Roads in the Department of Public Works, which was under the management of Tweed, shows that enormous charges have been made for tools and road repairs.

BOWLING GREEN SAVINGS BANK.

Another suit against Roche, Vice President of the Bowling Green Savings Bank, was brought to-day by the Receiver. His bail was fixed at $65,000. Other officials of this bank will be arrested soon.

ADMIRALTY SUIT DECIDED.

An admiralty suit to recover one hundred dollars, commenced in 1856, against L. Aundreid by E. N. Kirk, was to day decided in favor of the plaintiff.

SECRET SESSION.

The investigation of alleged corrupt judges was continued this morning, but the sessions continue secret.

BUFFALO.

The Fishery Question.

BUFFALO, February 23.—At a meeting of the Board of Trade this morning, James H. Dormer introduced a strong preamble and resolutions on behalf of the fishing industry of the lakes, which has suffered terribly under the reciprocity. The high tariff on materials used in the trade, such as linen, twine, salt, &c., and especially by unjust and invidious discriminations in favor of New England fishermen. The resolutions also set forth that the western fishery industry under the Treaty of Washington is threatened additional burdens, and promises to be utterly ruined; urge on Congress to extend immediate relief to western fishermen, and request western Congressmen to favor such adjustment of the fishery question as will give lake fishermen all the rights, privileges and drawbacks extended to the fishermen of other sections. The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

—Mail advices from Brazil state that a band of Gauch's assassins, under the lead of a Chilian, killed, in one day, some fifty foreigners near the river Platte. The foreigners, aided by the authorities, turned upon the murderous band and killed ten and took eighteen prisoners. The leader of the villains was taken from jail and lynched. It was expected that the rest of the prisoners would be shot by the townspeople.

☞ HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, February 5, 1872.

In pursuance of the resolution of the REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, adopted at Harrisburg Jan 18, 1872, a REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION, composed of Delegates from each Senatorial and Representative District in the number to which such District is entitled in the Legislature, will meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, at 12 o'clock, noon, on WEDNESDAY, the 10th day of April, A. D., 1872, to nominate candidates for Governor, Judge of the Supreme Court, Auditor General (should the Legislature provide for the choice of one by the people), and an Electoral Ticket; and also to elect Senatorial and Representative Delegates to represent this State in the REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, to be held in Philadelphia, June 5, 1872.

RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman.

WM. ELLIOTT, D. F. HOUSTON, EZRA LUKENS, P. M. LYTLE. } Secretaries.

THE MEETING THIS AFTERNOON.

We sincerely hope that the public meeting at the Mayor's office called for this afternoon at three o'clock, by Hon. James Blackmore, Mayor of the city, will be largely attended. The necessity of new public buildings need not be recited here. We have so frequently alluded to the subject and our people are so well acquainted with the facts of the case that we feel it unnecessary to argue the point this morning. Pittsburgh is the centre of one of the most remunerative revenue districts of the country, and deserves to have proper accommodations for the transaction of Governmental business. If our citizens speak out plainly on the subject the appropriation will come; if they remain silent and permit Gen. Negley to go unsupported in his movement to bring the money to our city and supply us with the necessary public buildings, the movement will fail. We have been given to the fault of permitting our representatives in Congress to go single-handed and alone, while he should have been warmly supported in his efforts to do justice to our local interests. This passive policy is followed by no other live community in the country, and now as it is asked that we second the application of Gen. Negley for an appropriation of money for the use of our district, we hope the business citizens will turn out and swell the meeting called by the Mayor.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp 44½f.

BONDS at Frankfort 95¾.

GOLD closed in New York on yesterday at 111.

THERE is said to be much opposition to Mr. Humphrey's bill to protect the labor of coal miners, which will develop itself in a few days. A meeting of the Coal Exchange has been called for this purpose, on next Monday.

WHEN GENERAL GRANT commenced his Presidential term, a $100 U. S. bond was worth only $82.72 in gold; it is now worth $101 in gold. At the end of his second term, we predict, it will be worth $112 in gold, and government greenbacks will command a premium of five per cent. provided we have no war or international trouble in the meantime.

INDIANA, MISSOURI, South Carolina, District of Columbia, follow Kansas, Pennsylvania and other States in endorsing General Grant's administration, and recommending him for re-nomination. Grant and Colfax will sweep the country next fall. Schurz and Sumner, with Trumbull, Logan, and Fenton, have done their worst to injure the party, and the result is increased strength and greater unity. Even Greeley, foreseeing the game to entrap him in a free-trade scheme, deserted them. Keep the ball rolling.

OUR dispatches announce the arrival at Chicago of the first through San Francisco passengers, via the Union Pacific Railway for twenty-eight days. Their statements are uniform, and tell of much suffering and hardship. Blame is attached to the officers and managers of the road, but much of this may be the result of excitement, rather than of investigation. The road has been completely blockaded for the above time, by the immense fall of snow. No doubt every possible effort has been put forth by the managers of the road to keep the trains running, but this may have been, and doubtless was found impossible.

THE ALLEGHENY COUNTY fee bill, as published in our columns yesterday, will doubtless become a law, unless some unforeseen objection be raised. We cannot see the force in giving the District Attorney $4,000 per annum salary, and in addition, one-half of the forfeited recognizances. The salary appears ample, without the perquisite. By the way, we think a letter from Hon. D. N. White would be in order, merely to explain his sudden conversion to the new bill. We have been looking for a document of this kind for some days. Does Mr. White consider this bill right and proper, and a fair equivalent for the loss of his bill? His friends would like to know, as they have perfect confidence in his judgment on this subject, and his conscientiousness. A word from him on the subject would do good.

WHATEVER MAY BE said or thought of the quality of the candidates spoken of, for the nomination to the Presidency, the quantity will certainly not be complained of on the score of insufficiency, at least. In the year 1872 there is a probability that every shade of political opinion will be fairly represented by an aspirant for the honors of the White House. Already we have David Davis, of Illinois, nominated by the so-called labor-reform party, and James BLACK, of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, by the Prohibitionists. Lucy Stone, or George Francis, will doubtless represent the "Suffragists," whilst Brigham Young will again nominate himself, and stand on the platform of universal polygamy. Horace Greeley will stand solitary and alone for the "one term principle, with "protection" added; whilst Trumbull will represent those who worship that "principle" without "protection." Judge Thurman, of Ohio, may be so unfortunate as to receive the nomination from the representatives of the party of dead men and dead ideas; but General Grant will sweep them all out of sight next November, as he did the hosts of rebellion, representing as he does, the practical, honest, progressive party of a true reform in politics, and genuine economy in the administration of national affairs.

ANOTHER ENGINEERING TRIUMPH.

The completion of the Union Pacific Railway bridge across the Missouri river at Omaha is another signal triumph of engineering skill. The bed of the Missouri at the point in question being composed of quicksand to an almost unknown depth, it was found impossible to obtain a stable foundation for the bridge by sinking cribs of stone, which plan answers every purpose in ordinary cases of bridge building. Piers of masonry, constructed with the aid of coffer dams, were for the same reasons unavailable. The plan adopted to overcome the natural obstacles presented by the constantly shifting sands of the river bed was the sinking of the hollow columns of plate iron, riveted together, which, when once permanently settled, were filled with a concrete or cement of lime, gravel and sand. From the surface of the water the columns were built upon by adding new plates, which were riveted in place for which purpose forges were carried up, as the work progressed, to the top, at which height the workmen appeared, to persons below, mere pigmies. The height of the bridge is such as to permit not only steamers of the largest class to pass under without lowering their smoke stacks, but the largest class of lake craft might sail beneath, without danger to masts or rigging. The columns upon which the superstructure rests are in pairs; three pairs standing between the banks. The work required three years of vigorous "pushing" for its completion, and it now stands an enduring monument of the energy and enterprise of the U. P. R. R. as well as an everlasting testimony of the skill of the engineers who erected it.

HONEST ELECTIONS.

Although the Republicans yielded more than could have been expected, and more than would have been accorded, had "the boot been on the other leg," in the matter of the Gray-McClure contest; yet now that the committee has been appointed, there is a vigorous call on the part of Republican journals throughout the State, for a thorough and impartial investigation into the alleged frauds at the late election, and if it shall be ascertained that Col. Gray received illegal support, and that McClure received none such, then the latter should have the seat without one dissenting voice. But should the investigation develop fraudulent voting on both sides, then the matter should be referred back to the voters of the IVth district.

This would be the fair and proper course to pursue, as neither party can afford to approve illegal elections, and if such means will be resorted to, the only way is to refuse a seat in the Legislature to the candidate so elected. This will break up the pernicious practice, at once and forever, and stigmatize as they deserve, all found participating in such work. In this case, of course, we do not know of any illegal voting having been done; it is charged on both sides, and if it was done in favor of one candidate, we are morally certain it was practiced also by the other party. If this should be proven, then we emphatically assert that the election should be declared null and void, and the citizens of the IVth district should be allowed the privilege of holding the election over again. The seat of George Connell should be filled by a pure man, and a strong one intellectually, not only, but by one who received the honest endorsement of a majority of the people of his district.

If it shall be ascertained, in the event of a new election being held, that the bitterness existing between the active supporters of the two candidates last voted for in the IV district is of such a nature as to prevent an honest election being held, we advise that they be both dropped, and new men entirely selected. The State affairs will run along just as smoothly, and the business of the people be just as well attended to, if neither Gray nor McClure shall be in the Senate. We think it would be politic and prudent to drop them both—provided frauds on both sides shall be discovered, and a new election therefore be ordered—and in this way administer a sound rebuke to imprudent partisans, who would abuse and outrage the sanctity of the ballot-box.

"ET TU!"

At Antwerp, just now there is a curious gathering of saddened hearts. All the deposed Kings, Queens and sovereigns of whatever title, are assembled, and are deliberating plans by which their more fortunate successors may be circumvented, and their lost titles and thrones be restored to them. First they weep in concert for the "joys they have tasted," which stimulating exercise is followed by a song from Napoleon, or the long lost King of Little Hanover, usually "Days of Absence" or "The Harp that once," or some other mirth-provoking ditty. Then Queen Isabella gives one of her inimitable "heel and toe polkas," which is encored until the Committee on Resolutions are ready to report, the announcement of which fact causes instant silence to reign. The platform is usually much similar to that of the Democracy of this country, and mildly intimates somewhere between its beginning and ending, that "whereas, we are out and they are in, therefore, resolved, that they should be out and we should be in," or words to that effect. The whole affair resembles a meeting of our Democracy, really, to a great degree, and is solemn enough to draw tears from the eyes of the most intense ruler or office holder. The meeting will adjourn by and by, just like our Democratic conventions do, and resolve to meet again, after suffering another crushing defeat of "hopes deferred," anticipating that through long continued effort, sympathy will at last be gained in sufficient quantities to replace the "rejected" in power.

It is well known by almost everybody that these ex-sovereigns—like our Democratic "outs"—are the only persons really fitted by nature and education to fill the important positions of honor and trust; but he was said to be a very wise man who told the world that "it was believed by some, the maidens who would make the best wives never marry, but remain free, to bless the world with their impartial sweetness." Now we do not believe anything of the sort, in fact we think those who will make the best wives, are generally selected; of course, not always; and we are also pedantic enough to think that those who will make the best Kings and Queens are, as a rule, chosen; and this is really why our Democrats are "out" and we are "in." But they don't believe it, not they—not a bit of it. They know, just as the ex-Kings do that if "justice" prevailed they should be "in," and the others should always be "out." Strange, isn't it?

RELIGOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The question, who originated the idea of a religious paper, instead of being considered settled, by the claims of the friends of the late Sidney E. Morse, long of the New York Observer, and subsequently by the Presbyterian Banner, is more mixed than before. R. S. Willis, declares the honor belongs to his father, Nathaniel Willis, who took counsel with ministers and laymen in 1808, in reference to establishing a religious journal, which was finally accomplished in 1816, when the Boston Recorder was first published. The Banner adheres to its claim that the Weekly Recorder, at Chillicothe, Ohio, appeared in 1814, and therefore has precedence over the Boston paper two years. But, according to the Boston correspondent of the Christian Intelligencer, their claims have been preceded, which we refer to our friends of the Banner for settlement, namely: The Christian History was published in Boston in 1743, the Herald of Gospel Liberty in Portsmouth, N. H., in 1808, and the Christian Remembrancer in Philadelphia in 1810. The claims of the Herald of Gospel Liberty seems, however, to be fully established, a copy of the first volume being in possession of the Boston Advertiser. Its editor was Rev. Elias Smith, a minister of the Christian Baptist Church.

St. Michael's Lutheran church, Fifth and Cherry streets, Philadelphia, erected in 1747, one of the oldest land marks of that city, is to be removed to make way for the demands of trade. During the Revolution this church suffered great indignities at the hands of the British, and was used for a stable by the soldiery. It is stated that no less than five Lutheran churches owe their existence to this venerable parent.

Rev. H. W. Beecher recently opened the course of lectures provided for at Yale Theological Seminary, New Haven, by the gift of ten thousand dollars by Mr. Sage, of his congregation, as a permanent fund, the interest of which should be used each year to secure a course of lectures upon preaching. Mr. Beecher in speaking of the call to the ministry, remarked that God stood at the portal of life, and said: "One-quarter man come forth; no, not you. One-half man come forth; no, not you. Whole man come forth; yes, you, I want you to preach." The elements of character needed in the true preacher are: 1. Fruitfulness in moral ideas. 2. Power of moving man. 3. The sense of the unseen and infinite faith, the poetic temperment. 4. Good health and common sense, which last is never gained by education. 5. Self-abnegation, willingness to be the humblest of God's servants. Questions were propounded to Mr. Beecher in regard to Calvinism, and the reason for the tendency to short settlements in the ministry. The answer to the first was liberal, and to the latter, the answer was quick as a flash, "Largely the Divine mercy to the churches," followed by an expansion to the effect that when a man had got to the end of his resources, he had better resign his charge.

Rev. Mr. Kelly, a minister of the Disciples, or Campellites, in Ohio, was called upon to administer baptism to a dying man, who desired the ordinance by sprinkling. After much hesitation, and pleading by the family not to let him die without gratifying his desire, he sprinkled him. In his defence to his brethern, he prefaces his account by saying: "If I sinned, I pray God to forgive me."

Deacon Simson Page has been the Superintendent of the Congregational Sunday School at Hallowell, Maine, forty five years.

A colored woman, Mrs. Mary Ann Goodman, of New Haven, Conn., bequeathed all her property, five thousand dollars, to the scholarship fund of the Theological Department of Yale College, in aid of colored young men preparing for the ministry in that institution, and if at any time it was needed for the support of other students in the Seminary, it was to be so applied. As she had provided no burial place for herself, she was interred in the lot belonging to the University.

The Advance reports that one hundred persons have been received into the Second Congregational church, at Fair Haven, Ct., under the pastoral care of the distinguished author, Rev. J. S. C. Abbott, and seventy more are waiting to come.

Rev. Dr. Skinner, a Presbyterian divine, of Cincinnati, insists that the Church is composed of "believing parents and their children." Dr. Crosby holds substantially the same view, and has therefore adopted the plan of preaching regularly to the children. He says "if the Church ought to aim at or expect early conversions, then the object of preaching to children ought to be studied by all pastors, if they would keep at the head of the movement of the Church."

According to the Christian Union, last year out of eighty-nine parishes in the Episcopal Diocese of Illinois, forty-eight had endured a change of pastorate, and in some instances there were three successive incumbents to the church. This is Bishop Whitehouse's Diocese.

The Christian Radical of this city receives much praise from the Golden Age, Tilton's paper, for its ability.

The Golden Age thinks the act of Mr. Morgan taking books from the Theological Library, of Cincinnati, a fine theme for psychological study, and if he is a thief, he is one of no common sort, and his action is more suggestive of disease than of depravity.

The Catholic of this city looks exceedingly bright and cheerful in its new suit of type and nice press work. From a recent announcement we learn the Catholic is prospering and its circulation steadily increasing. Mr. Jacob Porter, the publisher, deserves to be congratulated for its management. Particular regulations appear for the Lenten season by order of Bishop Domenec of the Diocese.

From the late exhibit of the Book Committee, having under supervision the Publishing interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the New York Book Concern has assets to the amount of $1,850,315, and liabilities $735,135. A mortgage of $60,000 was paid off on December 2, after the annual exhibit was made out. The capital of the Concern was $1,005,179, and the profits or increase over the previous year was $69,163.

Dr. Sheldon, a Baptist minister at Troy, N. Y., writes to the Examiner, that he had baptised a little girl so small that he took her in his arms, though of unusually mature mind, and gave conclusive evidence of conversion. An exchange pronounces this a case of infant baptism.

MARCH MAGAZINES.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—Rich and bounteous as ever this monthly comes to us again. After looking at the Easy Chair, and seeing what Mr. Curtis has to say about Fisk and Wachtel and Longfellow, we find a number of fine articles by other writers in the other portions of the magazine. Col. Thorpe describes the United States Treasury Department in an illustrated article. Col. Church writes about Boliva and the Amazon. Mr. Allan Brown tells some of the things he knows about naval architecture, and Mr. Moncure D. Conway, the reckless correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, begins the history of Munich. Mr. Seilhamer, another newspaper man, writes of Negro Life in Jamaica, J. W. De Forrest has a Case of Vitrification, Julian Hawthorne A Star and a Candle, John G. Saxe a Sonnet, Anthony Trollope's Golden Lion of Granpere is continued, and the editorial departments are all interesting. We are indebted to the publishers and to Messrs. J. W. Pittock & Co. for this magazine.

SCRIBNERS' MONTHLY.—It is but proper that Scribner's and Harper's should come together because they are more alike than any other two of the Magazines. Scribner's is very profusely and prettily illustrated this month and contains an article on the Chesapeake Peninsula by Geo. Alfred Townsend, another called The Heart of Arabia by Bayard Taylor, a poem by H. H., called My Hickory Fire, and a number of other short articles. Wilfred Cumbermede is completed and At His Gates continued, while Dr. Holland's editorial departments are as good as usual. But to our minds the best thing in the number is Charles Dudley Warner's Back Log Studies. Mr. Warner, whose Summer in a Garden, was so extensively read, shares with Howells, the honor of being the purest, cleanest and most refined of American humorists, and there is no draw back to the pleasure of his readers. If it were not that he is occasionally aggressive we should say that he is Lamb like, Charles Lamb like, but we avoid comparison and recommend the article. We have received this magazine from the publishers and from Messrs J. W. Pittock & Co.

WOOD'S HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE.—This monthly is getting to be one of the best, certainly the best of its kind, in the country. It has a very large circulation and the present number contains articles by George W. Bungay, Horace Greeley, Gail Hamilton, James Parton, Dio Lewis, Dr. Hall and other writers. Persons who have never seen it will be surprised when they find out what a large and able magazine can be had for one dolar a year. We have received it from the publishers.

THE LITTLE CORPORAL.—This little soldier has recovered from his baptism of fire, and is very fresh and bright, doing credit to Chicago and giving pleasure to the children. The publishers have our thanks for it.

Equalization.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Several times during the past few years the writer has endeavored to attract public attention to the unequal assessment of real estate in this city and county, and is now gratified to find some degree of interest excited in the subject. It is indeed a glaring evil and well worthy of the earnest thought of our citizens.

The bill of Mr. McCarthy in the Councils, is a move in the right direction, but in the opinion of your correspondent, scarcely calculated to meet the emergencies of this case. It is too much like putting a new patch on an old garment, by which the rent is made worse, and is moreover, as it seems to me impracticable in its application. The idea as I understand it is this. To take the aggregate valuation of property as made by county Assessors for the city, and so equalize it, that city and suburb shall pay an equal proportion of taxation. So far, good, but when are you to commence this tremendous job. Where get a starting point, of fair valuation, by which a definite rule shall be established. There is not perhaps a single foot of property in the city, which would present a fair estimate of value by which other property could be gauged. Try it on any square or block, in the old city, and any ward or part of a ward in the new city.

It is very evident that the valuation of the whole city in the aggregate being based on a wrong foundation, the attempt at an equalizing valuation in all its details, running through a scale comprising the value of thousands of lots, would be a work requiring a degree of patience and skill possessed by very few experts, and a length of time which would weary the patience of Job himself.

Why, then, undertake this doubtful enterprise when there is within reach already a remedy fully adequate to meet the case.

Your assessors are sworn to make correct returns of the value of all property in the county, and it is the duty of the County Commissioners to supervise the returns, and if found unjust or oppressive, to apply a proper remedy.

Let the commissioners, then, instruct the assesors that the oath they take is not a mere form, but that it means what it says, and that unless the returns made by them are made upon the basis of interest cash value, they will not be received. This being done, the reform is effected, and in the absence of a law similar to the Ohio law (which makes every man his assessor) a fair approximation to the value of all the property in the county will be reached.

It is no answer to this argument, that as other counties in the State pursue the present rascally system, our county would be unfairly represented in the State assessment. There is no State tax on real estate; and if there were, let our County Commissioners set those of other counties a good example of good, square honesty, and not foist upon our State authorities and the general public the perjured returns which have been so long prevalent, but show to all the world that we can afford to be honest.

This, of course, leaves the whole matter in the hands of the County Commissioners, and it may be said that it may be difficult to get them up to the mark in this respect. To this I answer, bring the force of public opinion to bear upon them, and they must do their duty, or give place to men who will.

SENEX.

What it Means?

MESSRS. EDITORS: The Washington and Jefferson College case has at last been decided against the complainants, and as it has attracted much attention, it is natural for us to ask, What does this decision mean? One carefully looking at the subject would reply, thus: It means that if a college can be removed from one place to another contrary to the wishes of those by whose money and labor it was built and supported, it can also be removed to a third place, and from that again to another, whenever a few trustees prove faithless to their trust. It means that the work of good and upright men for the last sixty years or more, has been overthrown without any satisfactory reason, whatever; for if one good reason can be given by the trustees for the removal of Jefferson College, those of us who have tried to prevent this, will be willing to pledge ourselves to raise fifty thousand dollars for new buildings at Washington. It means that Jefferson College, which has done so much for the State, and more for the church of Christ than any other college in the country, to-day lies bleeding with wounds almost fatal, and thousands are mourning as they remember her past history, of which every sensible alumnus may well be proud. It means that the Jefferson Alumni feeling that their "Alma Mater" is dead" and will use their influence in sending students to Colleges away off from Washington county. It means the abandoning of buildings which for many years to come, would, as in former years, accommodate hundreds of students and a good corps of instructors in one place, and the erecting of new buildings in another place, only seven miles away. It means that this work of building being too great for the Trustees will have to be done by other persons, and this means a circular to each Jefferson Alumnus begging him to aid those who have severely wounded his mother. It means that those who in the interest of Jefferson College drew up scholarships purporting to give an education at this institution, didn't know how to spell the name of the place where this instruction was to be given, they spelled it Canonsburg, it should have been spelled Washington.

W. F. B.

Brownsville, Pa.

BROWNSVILLE, February 18, 1872.

Yesterday (Sabbath) morning about daylight a fire was discovered in the shoe store of Wilgus & Son, in what is called the "Neck." It is the principal business part of the town. The alarm was given and the people gathered in large numbers and commenced to battle with the destroyer; but being poorly equipped and the enemy having the start of them, it soon destroyed that building and the contents. Then the adjoining buildings at both sides were attacked. The one on the east side, owned by T. Gummert and occupied by Thomas Duncan as a furniture store. Most of the contents were saved, though much injured, but the building was destroyed. The building on the west side was occupied by Devore & Co., as a clothing store. Most of the stock was saved, but the building was destroyed. This building and the one occupied by Wilgus both belonged to Devore. Over these stores was the Odd Fellows Hall, which was destroyed entirely, books and all. The above buildings were of brick, two and three stories high. Next, west of these, was a frame building owned by Mat. Storey, and occupied by him as a saloon, which was entirely destroyed. Next was a little frame barber shop occupied by a colored man, which was also destroyed. Then came a vacant lot, where the fire was arrested. A colored man by the name of Henophon had a shoe shop over Wilgus' store. All in it was burned. Several other buildings were badly roasted, and narrowly escaped being destroyed.

The entire loss is about $30,000. Entire insurance about $24,000. Seven or eight companies are losers. No doubt the fire would have gone farther east, but for an alley between the buildings. The third building eastward is a distillery, and then next a warehouse, so that if it had reached these, there would have been a fire on a large scale for a small town; but, by hard work, in which the ladies joined in good earnest, it was arrested at the alley. For a time it looked as though the entire neighborhood would be burned out. Distilleries and liquor stores should not be allowed in any town, or near other buildings; the risk is too great. It is not known definitely how the fire originated. Do not know whether they will rebuild soon or not. It will be difficult for all to get places to resume business without rebuilding, and quite a loss to Brownsville.

C.

MATTERS OF MOMENT.

THE Labor Reformers have dropped the women suffragists, but we have no doubt that they will retaliate by dropping the Labor Reformers in return, and having the last word, too, which, all must acknowledge, is a satisfaction.

THE cardinals want to get Trent to hold an œcumenical council in, but the Emperor of Austria won't rent it. The office of Bishop will get a bad name if those Italian cardinals keep getting up councils and making Episcopal dignitaries travel from the ends of the earth every few years.

THE Germans defeated the French for whom the Democratic Boston Post battled manfully, but the Post has its revenge by a sort of metaphorical curl of the lip when it calls the German Emperor "Kaiser Bill." It is thought that the Emperor will not survive that sarcasm if he hears it.

ONE of the great amusements in Paris just now seems to be the creation of reports that certain persons will certainly be appointed Ambassadors to certain places. The cable telegrapher is fully convinced that it is a most fascinating amusement, and is fast satisfying the American press that it is a dear little game.

THE people of Havana had a grand fright the other evening, in the shape of the first aurora they have had for thirty-seven years. On the principle that two negatives make an affirmative, or two heads are better than one, or something of that dual nature, the Havanese all rushed to church and listened to a roarer there.

A CHICAGO correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial writes "The spicy Evening Post is printed on a Bullock." What visions of spiced rounds of beef, corned beef and mustard, or roast beef and horse-radish that sentence evokes. How the Chicagoan must enjoy his Evening Post at supper time, too, with coffee and hot cakes.

THEY say the Pope is going to leave Rome. This would be startling intelligence were it not that they have said it every time they ran short of other gossip, ever since Rome became the Italian capital. This is a distich which was repeated to us once—if not oftener—as it may be new to our readers we shall try to recall it: "Try, try again, if at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

WE are not proficient in bell letters, so we cannot say whether the way the chimes of Trinity are rung is artistic or not, but we can assure the ringer that he would add greatly to the pleasure which the neighbors of the church take in life, if he could consistently omit the long clatter on a little bell, ending with a bang on a big one, with which he winds up his performances every day.

A REPORTER of a Louisville paper speaking of Aimee, says: "The audience seemed as if surprised at so much beauty and grace. She is at once daring and winning, as light and mercurial and mischievous as Puck. She is a star, a sunbeam, the sparkle of champagne, the ripple on the brook—in short the very queen of mirth and grace." Now that is all very well but why did he not say whether he admired her or not? An amusement noticer ought not to leave any room for doubt whether he was enthusiastic or otherwise.

WE desire to know how long a family must occupy a throne before it ceases to be illegitimate? Of the large numbers of stray sovereigns now loose in the world, some are called legitimate and some are not. All the legitimists are direct members of the old royal families. Now supposing the King of Sweden to be deposed would he be regarded as legitimate or not? Are eighty years sufficient time to remove the bar sinister from a crown?

KINDNESS TO KINDRED.

Want of the necessary means to supply the necessities which usually press upon people in the more moderate walks of life, may be an excuse for neglecting a disease which, like consumption, has often in times past been esteemed as incurable. But the common ties of nature, which ought to bind man to his own, overleap all these barriers in the estimation of right-thinking people; and when we see a medicine like Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure curing hundreds of people all around us, we feel it not only a pleasure, but a duty to point out to our readers such a valuable acquisition to medical knowledge. In the earlier stages of lung disease Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure is a specific. The cough and chill, the sputa streaked with blood, all give place to that healthy equilibrium of the circulation which is induced by that all-powerful remedy; and every bit of peccant and disorganizing material is expelled from the blood, and removed from the system by the natural ducts and excretory organs of the body. The tens of thousands of lungs clogged with mucus and seething with corruption can be made to perform the office of respiration by a timely use of Dr Keyser's Lung Cure. Office and store, 167 Liberty street.

CAUTION.

The efficacy of PANCREATIC EMULSION and PANCREATINE and its preparation in the treatment of Consumption, Indigestion and Wasting Diseases, depending entirely upon their purity and strength, Messrs. Savory & Moore caution the public against inferior preparations, which are calculated to cause disappointment and to injure the reputation these medicines have acquired. Purchasers should see that each bottle has the names of Savory & Moore and their trade mark.

FOUR MILLIONS OF INVALIDS.

At the lowest computation there are never less than four millions invalids in the United States. Of this number probably more than three-fifths have neglected the ordinary precautions necessary for the preservation of health, and are suffering the punishment due to their carelessness. If the multitudes who are now afflicted with biliousness, indigestion, rheumatism, intermittent fever, irregularities of the bowels, general debility nervous disorders, &c., had, at the very first symptoms of indisposition, invigorated, regulated and purified their systems with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, two-thirds of them would at this moment be performing the active duties of life, unannoyed by any ailment of the body or the mind.

This assertion is made advisedly. It is founded on experience, and is borne out by the testimony of a countless host of witnesses, whose attestations cover almost every variety of disease, and extend over a period of about twenty years. Of every thousand persons who take the Bitters, as a preventive of the complaints above enumerated, seven-eights escape them entirely; and of every thousand who are actually attacked, and use the great Vegetable Tonic as a remedy, three-fourths are radically cured. These are not hap-hazard assertions, but statistical facts. They are based upon the results of inquiries made by more than fifty thousand persons, in various parts of the country, and upon the letters of prominent citizens of every State. It might almost be said, of every county in the Union.

Finance and Trade.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, February 23, 1872.

The local money market is without features of special interest. The demand for loans steady and fully equal to the discounting ability of the banks and private corporations. The current rates upon first-class paper are from 8 to 10 per cent., graded somewhat upon the time, and number of names. Second-class signatures are exceedingly slow of sale, and are rated at from 12 to 15 per cent.

There is but little doing in local stocks, but that little is at a small concession on prices current a few weeks ago. A. V. R. R. bonds were offered to-day at 93¾. Connellsville 6's at 87¼. We presume that 93 and 86 are about the rates at which they could be sold respectively. It is announced that where the stockholders of a national bank, now banking on the new 5 per cents, claimed exemption from local taxation on the ground that the new bonds exempt their owners from such taxation, the Treasurer of the United States has decided that the shares of such banks are not in any way protected by the Refunding act from the operation of any local law.

The transfer books of the Pennsylvania Central were not closed as suddenly as was anticipated from the resolution passed at the late meeting. It appears now that all sales made until Monday next will be entitled to the 30 per cent. allotment. By this allotment the capital stock of the Pennsylvania will be swollen to $52,500,000. The sober second thought of the Brokers Board in Philadelphia brought the prices for which the stock could be purchased, allotment included, from 65⅜ down to 63¾, at which it is selling there this afternoon.

The Cleveland and Mahoning road received last year in gross $416,989.91, out of which were paid 7 per cent. dividends on capital stock, interest on bonds, sundry small expenses and cash for the redemption of $108,500 of bonds, leaving a balance of $57,015. Mr. James McHenry has agreed to purchase all the stock of this company which shall be presented and transferred to him on the 18th day of April next, provided it shall include a majority of the stock. Messrs. Duncan, Sherman & Co., of New York, have agreed to act as his agents and receive and pay for the stock according to the terms of the proposition. The price of the stock to be, for every two shares, or $100 of the same, $120 in currency, with interest thereon at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum from the date of the last dividend to the day on which the stock shall be delivered.

State repudiation is found, sooner or later, the most expensive way of liquidating claims. The latest instance of learning wisdom by experience we find in the following brief statement: "The jury has found bills of indictment against ex-Bank Examiner Callender, and against the brokers' firm through whom Paymaster Hodge lost his money in Wall street speculations.

Holders of the repudiated Minnesota bonds will be glad to learn that the Judiciary Committee of the State Legislature have taken up the subject of resumption by the State of these obligations, but no details of the movement are given beyond a brief telegraphic statement to the Associated Press of the simple fact as above."

—The fiat has gone forth that the Income Tax, at the rate of 2½ per cent. is to be collected for another year. The Ways and Means Committee, by a vote of 5 to 4, having so decided. A very unwise decision, for the income tax is already so reduced that it is only a nuisance and embarrassment without corresponding benefits to the Government. The putting of tea and coffee on the free list, which has been done by the House, will not be half as much appreciated by the reasoning classes as the repeal of the hated income tax would have been. It is odd that the members of Congress cannot be made to see as other men see. Even the Secretary of the Treasury, long a strenuous advocate of the income tax, wrote in his last annual report that "it is practicable to dispense with all revenue from internal sources except that derived from stamps, tobacco, and malt liquors"—and it has been proved over and over again that the cost of collecting the income tax is almost equal to the proceeds of that oppressive measure. Yet the Ways and Means Committee casts a majority of votes in favor of retaining it. This wrong is brought about to justify another wrong, so true is it that one wrong begets and sustains another. The House has passed a bill to make tea and coffee free. The duties from these articles are wholly revenue, and amount to some nineteen millions per year. Losing so much from these sources makes it seem necessary to retain the odious income tax.—Phila Ledger.

—In reply to an inquiry whether the stockholders of a national bank will be required to pay a municipal tax upon the shares held by them in case of exchanging six per cent. bonds deposited to secure the redemption of circulating notes for five per cent. bonds of the new funded loan, the Treasurer of the United States writes that although the act of July 14, 1870, declares that the funded loan of 1881 and interest thereon shall be exempt from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority. The deposit of bonds of that loan by a national bank with the Treasurer of the United States, to secure the redemption of its circulating notes, does not bring exemption to the bank from any payment of taxes which it would otherwise have been required to pay.—N. Y. Shipping List.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, February 23, 1872.

APPLE BUTTER—Common to fair 50@55 cts per gallon, prime to choice, 60@65.

ASHES—Soda Ash strong, stocks very much reduced, and, with considerable inquiry, prices have still further advanced; we now quote common at 5 cts, and refined at 5⅜. Nitrate Soda, unchanged at 5⅜; Pots, 10; Pearls, 11.

APPLES—Steady, with regular sales at $3@4 per bbl for common to medium, and $4.50@5.00 for prime to choice.

BROOM CORN—Quiet and unchanged; small sales within the range of 6@9 cts. Manufacturers complain that corn is too high, according to the price of brooms, and it looks as if there must be an advance in the one or a decline in the other before there is any improvement in business.

BUTTER—There is a steady demand for the better grades, but common and medium butter is in good supply and dull: sales of prime to choice roll at 26@28.

BEANS—Steady at $2.00@2.50 per bushel, as to quality.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—The supply in this market is reported small and it may be quoted steady at 4 cts.

CHEESE—Is firm with a fair jobbing trade but there is no change to make in quotations, 17@18 for Goshen; 15@16 for Factory and 14@15 for Dairy.

CRANBERRIES—Sales at $12@17 per bbl, as to quality—the outside figure for Sackett's.

COUNTRY LARD—Sales at 8@8⅜ cts.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$6 per case.

CANDLES—Mould, 12; Star, 20.

CARBON OIL—Quoted at 20@20⅜ by the car load and 2@3 cts additional for small lots.

CANNED GOODS—Firmer and higher, notwithstanding the demand is only fair; we now quote at $4.00@4.50 per case for Tomatoes; $6@7 for Peaches, and $5.50@6.00 for Corn.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches, in rather better demand, but prices remain unchanged; 10@10⅜ for halves; 8@8⅜ for mixed; 7@7⅜ for quarters. There is a steady demand for Apples, and prices are fully sustained; 7@7⅜ for common to fair, and 8@8⅜ for good to prime. Blackberries, 13@15. Pitted Cherries, 28@30; unpitted, 8@10.

EGGS—Continue scarce, and, with a steady demand, prices are still maintained, 30@32. Dealers generally expect increased receipts within the next few days, and if so, lower prices are certain to follow.

FLOUR—The market continues steady, though the demand is not so active, most of the retailers and bakers, for the present, being pretty well stocked, yet prices are fully sustained. We continue to quote, in a jobbing way, at $7.25@7.50 for fair to good spring extras, and $7.75@7.85 for choice; red winter wheat, $7.50@7.75 for fair to good, and $7.90@8.00 for choice. Rye Flour, $5.50.

GRAIN—Wheat continues very scarce and with a good milling demand prices are firm but unchanged; $1.58@1.62 for fair to prime red and $1.63@1.55 for white—the mills are buying all that offers within the range of the above quotations and the offerings are scarcely sufficient to supply the demand. Oats continue dull, the market being considerably overstocked and prices are weak though not quotably lower; 48@50 by the car load for mixed to prime white—two cars of mixed reported at 48. Corn continues dull but unchanged—58 on track and 60 in elevator for shelled; sales of ear at 60 in bulk and 61@62, bagged. Rye is scarce and may be fairly quoted at 95@97 buying and $1@1.02 selling; however, the inquiry does not seem to be very urgent. Barley is a shade firmer and the stock in this market is considerably reduced but prices are no better; 75@80 for spring and 80@85 for fall—sale of 10 cars of spring at 80.

GROCERIES—The situation in Coffee continues, to use a common expression, decidedly mixed; that trade is dull, very dull, is certain, and that stocks are accumulating must be conceded; still there has as yet been no decline, and the importers, according to our latest advices, are as "bullish" as ever, refusing to make the slightest concession; they seem confident of being able to weather it out and some of them allege that once the jobbers commence to stock up again, they will have no difficulty in realizing full prices, and that a further advance is not improbable. Sugars continue dull and weak though unchanged. Molasses and Syrups firm at the recent advance.

SUGARS—Refined—Standard Hards, 13⅜; A, 12⅜; B, 12⅜; Ex. C, 12⅜; C Yellow, 12⅜; Porto Rico Sugars—Choice, 11; Prime, 10⅜; Good, 10. Demarara, 11⅜@12. New Orleans—fair, 10; good, 10⅜; prime, 11; choice, 11⅜.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio 26; Prime, 25; Good, 24. Fair, 23@24⅜; Java, 28@30. Laguayra, 25@26. Mocha, 45. Roasted Coffee, pure, 28. Lower grades, 25@26.

SYRUPS—Havemyer & Elder's, 65. White Honey, 65. Loverine's, 60. Durant's, 65. Sugar Drips, 75; Bruce's, 65; other grades, 45@60. New Orleans Molasses, prime to choice new crop, 65@70.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 9⅜; Good, 8⅜; Fair, 8⅜. Rangoon, 8. Patna, 8⅜.

SPICES—Pepper, 24. Allspice, 18. Cassia, 50. Cloves, 25. Nutmegs, $1.40.

HONEY—Sales at 25@30 cts.

HOMINY—Sales at $4.50 per bbl to the trade and $5 in a jobbing way.

HAY—The receipts continue large, and with scarcely an average demand stocks are accumulating and prices are weak and drooping; we now quote at $20@25 per ton, on wharf and track. The steamer Argosy, from Wheeling, arrived to-day with between 400 and 500 bales.

LARD OIL—No. 1 Extra is quoted at 85@87 and No. 2 at 63@65.

MILL FEED—Is quoted in a jobbing way at $1.20@1.25 per cwt for Bran, $1.35@1.40 for coarse corn meal, $1.50@1.55 for coarse and $1.70@1.75 for fine middlings; $1.60@1.65 for chopped corn and oats and $1.90@2.00 for oil meal.

SHAKER CORN—13@14 cts per lb.

SEEDS—Sales of small lots at $6.50@6.75 for Clover Seed, and $3.75@4.00 for Timothy. Flaxseed is unchanged at $1.80, and the receipts continue very meagre.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, February 23, 1872.

The pig iron market presents but little that is really new, and the situation is substantially unchanged. The demand is perhaps scarcely so urgent as it was a few weeks ago, most of the mills having contracted ahead pretty largely, but there is still considerable inquiry, and, with continued light offerings, prices are firm and still tending upward. Commission merchants still allege that they are unable to supply their customers, that they have more orders than they can fill, and that they have orders to buy two hundred tons where they can get one hundred; furthermore, we are cognizant in more than one instance of open orders having been left in their hands to buy to the best advantage. Prices continue irregular, and the volume of business is so light that it is difficult to give accurate quotations. Open gray forge, the best quality of mill iron, brought $45, 4 mos, and No. 1 Foundry iron may be quoted at $46@47—sales were made at these prices this week.

Those mills that purchased largely early in the season, prior to the advance, did well as there has been an advance of from $6 to $8 per ton, in pig metal and in addition finished irons have been put up fully one cent per pound, and at the advance, there is a good demand, and the indications for a heavy spring and summer trade are very encouraging.

P. S.—Since the above was written, in reference to metal, we are reported a large number of sales, establishing the price of No. 1 mill iron at $45, an advance of $2@3 per ton within the past two weeks.

River Intelligence.

The river was receding last evening with four feet six inches in the channel.

The Argosy, from Wheeling, arrived and departed. She had a pretty good up trip, included in which was a large quantity of hay.

The hull for Capt. S. B. Coulson's new mountain boat was lounched yesterday; it will be towed down as soon as the Monongahela river opens.

The officers of the Argosy report a number of tow boats en route with tows, mainly of empty barges.

The J. S. Mercer is reported as having lost the most of her tow at Buffington.

Com. Kerr, of the Granite State, thinks he will make another attempt to get away to-morrow.

The Wild Duck, for St. Louis, and Messenger, for Nashville, will depart on the first water.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. Sam. Shuman, is announced to take her departure for St. Louis to-day. She seemed to be getting about all the freight she could handle yesterday. Capt. Jas. M. Vandergritt is in charge of the office.

The Arlington will not venture out until there is more water.

The chances for raising the Stella are very encouraging. It was reported yesterday that Capt. Wm. Dean, of the Allegheny Insurance Company had concluded a contract for raising and delivering her at the dock here.

The Exporter is rapidly approaching completion. Capt. Williams expects to have her ready to depart for New Orleans at the time advertised.

C. F. Adams, formerly clerk, is now in command of the Wild Duck. Capt. Anawalt. it is not likely will be idle very long—it is not in his line.

The weather yesterday was remarkably fine and all that could possibly be desired for out door business.

The St. Charles was advertised to leave Cincinnati for this port yesterday.

—Captain W. H. Leonard, an old pilot, formerly of Cincinnati, lately of St. Louis and New Orleans, received on the 3d inst., a paralytic stroke, from which it is thought he will not recover. He is lying at the residence of his son-in-law, F. M. Clutter, Esq., at Mount Auburn, Pendleton County, near Foster, Kentucky.

—J. R. Stewart & Co., of the Madison shipyard, have contracted for the building of a new transfer boat similar to the Lewis V. Bogy, which they built last season, only that there will be two tracks in place of one. Work will be commenced on her at once, and pushed to an early completion.

—The Raymond City Coal Company have purchased the steamer Mount Clare, recently used as a transfer steamer between Parkersburg and Marietta, for $15,000 to be used in towing coal from Kanawha River to Cincinnati.

—Four barges and one coal boat were caught in the ice at Louisville, one belonging to the Coal Hill Company, two to V. F. Wilson, and two to V. P. Collins. The Ben Franklin caught two barges of J. S. Neal's, and landed them at Utica.

—Twenty-six steamers, many of them having valuable cargoes on board, have been blockaded by the ice at St. Louis for several weeks past. The value of these boats and their cargoes is said to be at least $1,657,500.

—The towboat Webster, from Pittsburgh, with a tow of barges of coal, grounded them on Grand Chain, a quarter of a mile out of the channel. She succeeded in getting them off, and proceeded down the river with them.

—It is said that the Grand Duke, on the way down the river, at various times took the place of the pilot and engineer of the steamer, stating that he would be responsible for all accidents.

—The salvage claimed on a portion of the cargo of the steamboat Nashville, saved from the waters of the Ohio, was appraised Tuesday at $897.85.

—The Pink Varble has been sold to the Southern Oil Company at Memphis for $4,000. She will leave Louisville for Memphis to-day.

—A six foot vein of coal has been discovered at Elmwood Grove, near Wheeling. It is said to be of excellent quality.

—The Boaz ascended the falls on Wednesday en route for this port.

—The Illinois lost her wheel at Island 18.

HOME NEWS.

Letters Held for Postage.—Ellison & Co., New York, 3c; Moses Hell & Ellsworth, Washington, D. C., 3c; Mrs. Mary P. Morris, Montclair, New York, 1c; John Ormerod, Chittenango, New York, 3c; M. Clostbow, Butler, Pa., 3c.

The Meeting To-day.

We trust that our citizens who are interested in the progress of the city will turn out in large numbers this afternoon at two o'clock, at the Mayor's office to express their sentiments in relation to the erection of new Government buildings here.

Allegheny Library.

We dropped into this newly organized institution last evening, and found a large number of children and half grown men anxiously devouring the literary contents so prodigally furnished for their entertainment. The Library under the patronage of the Board of Control promises to prove an important auxilliary to the school system, and gives already decided evidence of positive and permanent usefulness.

The Great Sacrifice of Clothing

Now going on at No. 62 Fifth avenue will only continue a few days longer, as the proprietors must leave the room; therefore do not delay if you want to buy clothing at your own price, but go at once. The stock is still large and complete, and consists of children's youths' and gents' clothing of all kinds. Such bargains were never offered to the public before in this city, and, perhaps, will never be offered again; so don't stand on the order of your going, but go at once, and buy yourself a new suit at your own price, at No. 62 Fifth avenue, opposite Burnett's Museum.

Will Contested.

Yesterday Mr. David Gregg, of Ohio, through his counsel in this city, gave notice to Register Gray of his intention to contest the will of Mrs. Rachel Beggs, of North Fayette township, which was admitted to probate several weeks ago. The bequests in the will aggregate $8,000 and were distributed between the children of a neice of Mrs. Beggs, who, however, have not yet presented themselves. Mr. Beggs alleges that he is the only surviving representative of the deceased, and that the money properly descends to him. The Register fixed March 9th as the time for hearing the contestant.

The Last Chance.

This day at three o'clock, P. M., on the premises, will be sold at public outcry, lots 227 and 229 Liberty street. It would be difficult to name another piece of real estate, of equal frontage and superfice, that in present eligibility and prospect of future advance is so valuable and so promising as this. Our capitalists have their eye on it, and we shall be much disappointed if it does not command a price which a year ago would have been called very high, or which a year hence would as certainly be called very low, so that whatever price it may command at the sale to-day, the purchaser will have a good bargain.

Was he Stealing?

Yesterday afternoon a couple of Pittsburgh gentleman visited Allegheny in a buggy, and halted at the Park saloon in the Diamond, where they tied their horse and entered the building. After remaining in the saloon a few minutes they came out, when they discovered a man hurriedly driving their horse and buggy along Federal street towards this city. A policeman was at once started in pursuit of the fugitive, and luckily when the fellow reached the railroad crossing there was a freight train on the street, which effectually barred his further progress, and he was in consequence easily captured by the pursuing officer. He was locked up for a hearing under the name of Thomas McGill, and this morning the question as to whether the man was committing a larceny will be considered.

Fruits, Flowers and Seeds.

The well known Knox fruit farm and nurseries have for years enjoyed a reputation not equalled by any similar establishment in the country. There is, perhaps, no Pittsburgh establishment of any kind so well and favorably known all over the United States and British dominions, as it is something that Pittsburghers have a right to be proud of. Every one who is in the habit of visiting the Diamond Market during the summer and fall have seen the magnificent Fruit produced on it; which also is well known in all the Eastern markets.

The nursery productions, such as vines, plants, trees, flowers, &c., are known to be as superior as the splendid fruit. All persons wanting either plants, trees, flowers or seeds should call at the beautiful store of R. Cumming & Co., proprietors of this establishment, 99 Smithfield street, and procure catalogues.

First Ward, Allegheny.

The School Board of this ward have taken some pains to investigate the rumored spread of the small-pox, with a view of taking such action as might be suggested by the facts. It is ascertained that there are only some two or three light cases of small-pox, and three or four others of varioloid now in the ward, and that there has not been one new case this month. The disease, as testified by the Health Officer, Mr. Alex. Hanna, is dying out, and all alarm that has been occasioned by sundry exaggerated statements in an evening contemporary, may as well be set at rest. There is no cause for it, and there has been none. The one case of death from small-pox, in the vicinity of the school house, occurred through the patient going out before he was fully recovered from the attack, and this aggravated his disease and finally caused his death. There have been no violent cases in the ward, and all fears of the spread of the disease are groundless.

Who Knows Him?

By a late mail we received the following letter, which explains itself. Perhaps it may especially interest some of our readers, and if so, further information of the matter may be had at this office:

DETROIT, ILLS, Feb. 21, 1872.

MESSRS. EDITORS—Dear Sirs: I take the pleasure of writing you a request to be published in some Pittsburgh paper. On the 16th of November last there was a man by the name of John Laughlin killed by another man without any provocation, with a knife. He cut his throat from ear to ear, and Laughlin fell and died in about two minutes. Laughlin was from Chicago and was a brick mason by trade; he stated here that his parents lived in or near Pittsburgh, and, sir, if you will please publish his death, it may reach some of his relatives. He was buried decently near this place.

Any correspondence or inquiry will be answered by the Postmaster of Detroit, Pike county, Illinois.

The Department Store.

We have from time to time noticed the "Department Store" of Mr. D. W. Evans, at No. 59 Fifth avenue, and explained the meaning of the trade mark adopted by our friend Evans. We would mention again, however, that a system has been adopted at this store which recommends itself most favorably with our trade people. The novelties, necessities and Yankee notions are classified under the heads of respective prices, and as will be seen by a visit to his store, and a host of visitors call upon him daily, that articles of one price are placed in classified departments, first the 10 cent department, then the 15c, 20c, 25c, 50c, 75c, and $1.00 and upwards to $75. By this means the customer can see at once the value or price of the article or articles, that are plainly marked, and the prices are never varied from under any circumstances whatever. For a list of goods kept at the Department Store we will refer our readers to the advertisement of Mr. Evans in another column.

"Street Walkers" Arrested.

For a long time Wood street, after nightfall, has been infested with a class of abandoned women commonly termed "street walkers." Heretofore little or no efforts have been put forth on the part of the authorities to suppress this evil, and of late the number of nymphs du pave has increased to such an extent that a correction of the evil was earnestly demanded by scores of our best citizens. Last night, by order of Mayor Blackmore, there was an organized and concerted movement on the part of the police, which resulted in ridding the streets, for a time at least, of no less than sixteen prostitutes, all of whom were placed in the lock-up, and will this morning be dealt with by the Mayor according to the law in such cases made and provided. Following are the names of the prisoners: Ann Snyder, Georgie Ward, Mollie McCleary, Ella Dougherty, Kate Goldman, Sade Williams, Miss Smith, Minnie Adams, Eva Baker, Lu Rowe, Ella Johnston, Mollie Wiston, Sade Donnzer, Mary Hewitt, Mollie McHenry, Mollie McAleese, and John Kelly, the charge against the latter being that he was found on the street in company with lewd women.

A Pittsburgh Lady's Hospitality in a Foreign Land.

A Pittsburgh lady spending the winter in France, exhibited her hospitality and patriotism some time since in giving a princely entertainment to General Sherman and Lieutenant Grant, who passed through Nice on their European tour. La Saison de Nice, a French journal, gives an extended account of the gathering in which it says:

"A brilliant and elegant entertainment was given by Mrs. C. F. Spang, of Pittsburgh, United States, on the 19th of January, at the Hotel Chauvain. The most exquisite taste had regulated the arrangement of the decoration of the saloons. So perfect were all the appointments that the guests were enthusiastic as they looked upon the beautiful combinations of glass and flowers. The outlines of the apartments were on all sides hidden by garlands and roses and clusters of violets and camelias, which with occasional groups of rare plants banished all thoughts of mid-winter, and made it appear as if Spring held sway at this banquet. At the dinner, which was all a dinner could be, were Mr. Washburne, United States Minister to France, General Sherman and Staff, Admiral Alden, commander of the United States fleet in the Mediterranean, Captain Temple, U. S. N., Colonel Audenried, U. S. A., and Lieutenant Grant, son of the President. Also a number of other distinguished ladies and gentlemen of the United States, spending the winter in Nice."

Carriage Warerooms, Nos. 167, 169 and 171 Penn Street.

In passing down Penn street yesterday afternoon our attention was attracted to the large and spacious Carriage warerooms, Nos. 167, 169 and 171, now occupied by Messrs. Workman & Davis. We must confess we were somewhat surprised upon entering the establishment to find such a varied and variety of style of running gear that met our observation. Knowing the firm and their business, we anticipated and indulged in the thought that some handsome vehicles would be seen but were not prepared to see the great variety that was "shown up." From the lightest and weblike made wagon to the largest and cosiest phaeton, barouche and family carriage, and intermediate sizes as well, we found in the stock. The specimens of their manufacture of road wagons, in fact everything in the carriage line, is gotten up in a style that cannot be excelled, and for finish and durability, we believe this house ranks with the best of the metropolitan houses in the east.

It is unnecessary for us to enter into the details of mentioning each particular style of carriage, but would advise that a personal inspection be made by all who are contemplating the purchase of a "new rig" this spring. We can cheerfully recommend the house of Messrs. Workman and Davis to the favorable notice of our readers and are confident if they do not find the style of an article they will leave their order with them will be promptly filled and satisfaction guaranteed. At all events favor them with a call, and take a look through their establishment.

The fortunate breaking of the single-tree relieved the gentlemen from their perilous situation, and doubtless saved their lives. We are happy to state that their injuries are not of a serious nature.

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY.

Detective Messner Goes to the Country and Finds an Ugly Customer—A Prisoner Capitulates at the Muzzle of a Revolver.

Yesterday Detective John Messner arrested a man named John Culp on a charge of stealing a watch at a tavern, No. 66 Water street. It apears that a few days ago a farmer stopped at the house, No. 66, and before retiring for the night he pulled out his watch and placed it on the counter, telling the proprietor he desired him to take care of the timepiece. The attention of the landlord was turned to something else at that moment, and when he came to look for the watch it had disappeared. Culp was in the room at the time, and was so strongly suspected of having committed the theft that an information was lodged against him. A warrant was placed in the hands of Detective Messner, and learning that the accused was living on the farm of John Hahn in Shaler township, the officer proceeded thither yesterday to arrest him. Upon arriving at the house of Mr. Hahn, the officer found his man busily engaged in trimming shrubbery, using for that purpose a large pruning knife. When made acquainted with the detective's business, Culp at once assumed a defiant attitude, raising his knife and telling the officer that he could not take him. Messner drew his revolver, and leveling it at the head of Culp, informed that individual that he must surrender or take the consequences. The man gazed for an instant at revolver and with a scornful laugh told Messner that he was not to be intimidated by a "bluff" game, and that he might as well put away his revolver. At this time old Mr. Hahn appeared and by his advice Culp gave himself up. While en route to the city the detective and his prisoner discussed the circumstances attending the arrest of the latter in a somewhat animated manner, and while speaking of the revolver Culp remarked that "he was not to be frightened by any such demonstrations; that he also carried one of those things." As if to convince the officer of the truthfulness of his remarks, he suddenly drew from his pocket a single barreled pistol. Messner's revolver was out in a trice, and for a minute the two men contemplated the situation as calmly as could be expected under circumstances of a character at once so exciting and so dangerous to both. But Messner evidently had the best of it. Looking his prisoner in the eye, the officer demanded his weapon, when Culp, with a hearty laugh, exclaimed, "take the old thing and go to grass with it; there's nothing in it, anyhow." Upon investigating the pistol Messner found that Culp had spoken truly. His pistol was not loaded. To say the least of it, Culp ran a great risk of losing his life when he drew that pistol on Messner.

It has been ascertained that the stolen watch was purchased from Culp by a Mr. Ruby, of Allegheny, and that it will be recovered. The accused was locked up for a hearing.

A WITNESS' TROUBLE.

Hearing in the Lanahan Case—A Witness Suddenly Becomes a Defendant.

Yesterday afternoon there was a hearing before Commissioner McCandless in the case of J. K. Lanahan, charged with carrying on the business of a wholesale liquor dealer, without paying the special tax. The information was based principally upon the testimony of a saloon keeper named Thomas Hogan, who had said that he purchased liquor wholesale from the accused; but when put under oath he denied any transaction of that kind, but testified that Mr. Lanahan had presented him with a barrel of whisky as a gift of good will, but that he had never bought any whisky from Lanahan, although Lanahan had asked him if he wanted to buy any of a certain brand—making, however, no negotiations for the sale.

District Attorney Swoope, upon hearing this testimony, asked that the case be held over until Saturday for further examination, which request was granted by the Commissioner.

The District Attorney then had an information made against Hogan for having up a sign as a wholesale and retail dealer, without paying the tax. Mr. Hogan had incidentally admitted in his testimony that he had a sign of this character up, but denied being engaged as a wholesale dealer. Upon his own statement the information was based, and he thus suddenly from a witness became a defendant. He gave bail promptly in the sum of $2000 for trial, Mr. Lanahan being his bondsman.

FATALLY INJURED.

Knocked Down by a Coal Train.

Last evening about five o'clock as a coal train on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad was coming toward the city the engineer observed a man walking on the track, near Shady Side. He whistled an alarm but no attention was paid to it, and before the train could be checked the man was struck by the cowcatcher and thrown from the track some distance. When picked up he was found to be in a senseless condition, with his skull fractured. He was brought into the Union Depot and received medical aid, but the efforts of the physicians to restore him to consciousness were unsuccessful. He was then removed to the hospital, where he expired about eight o'clock.

There were no papers about him by which he could be identified. From his dress and general appearance it is supposed that he was a respectable German mechanic. He was about fifty years of age. The body remains at the hospital, but if not identified to-day will be buried by the company.

OBITUARY.

Demise of Prominent Citizens.

Yesterday morning the Pittsburgh Coal Exchange held a special meeting yesterday morning to take some action relative to the demise of a late member, Mr. Samuel Miller.

Mr. John F. Dravo presided, Mr. Frank H. Anderson acting as Secretary.

Mr. Dravo, on taking the chair, stated the object of the meeting, and spoke feelingly of deceased. He referred to the long years in which they had all been associated with Mr. Miller, and spoke of his generosity and many other noble qualities.

The following resolutions of respect were then unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We have learned with profound sorrow of the demise of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Samuel Miller, therefore be it

Resolved, That whilst we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, we cannot avoid the feelings of sadness which have come upon us on hearing of his death, having for long years been associated by the ties of friendship. And now that he has gone from among us, we can look back over the years and remember with pleasure the business intercourse which so often brought us in contact with our departed friend; nor can we forget the many instances of his unselfish acts to promote our general interest.

Resolved, That whilst we sincerely feel our loss, we have the consolation that our loss is his gain; that we believe he has gone to that home where privations and disappointments never come.

Resolved, That the family of the deceased have our heartfelt sympathies in this hour of their affliction, and that a copy of these proceedings be transmitted to them, and also published in our city papers, with a request that Louisville and New Orleans papers copy the same.

Resolved, That as a token of respect and esteem we attend his funeral in a body on Sunday next.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered at length upon the minutes and a copy thereof be sent by the officers to the family of the deceased.

Another Merchant Gone.

It is with feelings of genuine sorrow that we record the demise of an old friend and one of our most respected townsmen, Mr. John Porter. The sad event occurred at his residence, No. 143 Penn avenue, and was the result of a comparatively brief illness. The deceased was engaged extensively in the dry goods trade, which branch of mercantile life he had followed for about twenty-eight years. He was regarded by all with whom he had business intercourse with sentiments of the highest respect, and had the most enviable reputation for business integrity. In social life his affable manners and kindly, generous disposition won him many friends, by whom his demise is sincerely mourned. At the time of his death the deceased was in the forty-ninth year of his age.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, this afternoon at two o'clock.

THE COURTS.

Yesterday's Proceedings.

COMMON PLEAS—JUDGE STERRETT.

The argument list was taken up in this court yesterday morning. The most important matter argued was the motion for a new trial in the case of Kirkpatrick & Lyons vs. Wm. J. Shiras and Geyer for the defendant. After the argument the court took charge of the papers, and said a decision would be rendered at an early day.

Jury trials will be resumed on Monday.

DISTRICT COURT—JUDGE KIRKPATRICK.

In this Court the argument list occupied attention all day. There were no cases of importance argued. Jury trials will be resumed on Monday.

HYMENEAL.

A Notable Wedding.

Thursday last will be memorable for the number of parties in the upper walks of life who entered the holy estate of matrimony. Of these happy occasions none was more happy or accompanied by more pleasing accessories than the marriage of J. A. Courtney, Esq., and Miss Mary, daughter of Geo. F. Dinm, Esq. The nuptials were celebrated at the Third Presbyterian Church. The Pastor, Rev. F. A. Noble, being indisposed, the Rev. S. F. Scovel, of the First Presbyterian Church, proved himself a capital alternate.

At about eight o'clock in the evening the friends of the parties began to assemble and continued until the spacious church was well nigh filled. Just before nine o'clock the immediate friends of the bride and groom arrived and occupied the front seats, which had been reserved for them. The gentlemanly ushers, Major Charles Wickersham, William Thompson, Edward McClure and William McLain had been busy up to this moment in assisting guests to their seats. At precisely nine o'clock, the wedding party presented themselves to the celebrant Rev. S. F. Scovel, who addressed the candidates and their friends on the sacred and solemn nature of the object for which they were assembled, and after receiving fitting responses to the usual interrogatories from the betrothed, pronounced them man and wife. We have rarely been so pleasantly impressed on any similar occasion as with the grace and solemn dignity with which the Rev. gentleman conducted this marriage ceremony. After an impressive benediction, the large company dispersed. The married pair and their immediate friends re-assembled at the residence of the bride's father, on River avenue, Allegheny, where a sumptuous banquet awaited them; the parlors and festal hall were fragrant with wreaths and boquets of exotic flowers. The table groaned under a profusion of every good thing provided by the popular caterer, Julius Richter, and of course served in the most approved style. The scene here was second in interest only to that at the church, and more joyous in its manifestation, even than that. A rich enjoyment at the reception was the sight of an unusual display of costly and elegant bridal presents, including beautiful sets of silver and China ware, bronze and Parian statuettes, a magnificent clock and numerous articles of exquisite beauty and finish, all evincing the high estimation in which the bride was held. She is indeed one of the loveliest among the lovely, a great favorite in society and in the church, on account of her many accomplishments—a fitting mate for our friend, so well known for his elegant presence and excellent qualities of head and heart.

We owe it to our lady readers to speak of the trousseau of the bride and her maids, a subject to which we cannot do justice.

The bride wore a plain white silk skirt with full train, trimmed with applique lace and white illusions, and an elegant veil festooned with orange blossoms in wax. The maids wore white tarletan, full-trained, festooned with white and variegated camelias. All wore very fine jewelry, but not in excess. We neglected to say at the proper place that when the bridal party entered the church, the grand organ played the Bridal March, and other appropriate tunes, in the best style of the talented organist, Professor Rohbock; and we may add that after the banquet, some time was spent in hearty felicitations and leave-takings, when the active parties in the affairs of the evening, took a night train for the east, intending to extend their wedding tour to Philadelphia, New York, Boston, &c. Having thus set their barque afloat, we hope the voyage will be long and prosperous, ever attended by favoring winds, and that they will at last reach the haven where they would be.

POLICE NOTES.

Brief Mention of Criminalities.

Officer Messner arrested John Culp yesterday on a warrant from the Mayor's office, issued at the instance of Valentine Denhard, who keeps a public house corner of Ferry and Water streets. Mr. Culp is accused of culpably breaking open a trunk of which some other person held the key, and also of feloniously conveying a watch from the person of an unsuspecting agriculturalist to his own possession. The officer had been searching for the prisoner from last Monday till yesterday when he found the object of his solicitude engaged in the peaceful occupation of trimming grape vines about two miles beyond Getty's Run. Excepting his wearing apparel, the only article of value found upon the prisoner's person was an old fashioned single barreled pistol worth at the present price of gold between three and four cents.

At the Mayor's court yesterday afternoon, there were only two cases heard, both common drunks. "One dollar and costs," was the language addressed by his honor to each of the prisoners.

Alderman Butler yesterday issued warrants for the arrest of Margaret Harrigan and her daughter, the first named charged with assault and battery, and the other with disorderly conduct on oath of Grace Graham. It seems these parties have been indulging in law-suits during the past week, and yesterday, as the result of previous extensive litigation, a general row ensued, in which Mrs. Graham, as she alleges, was severely handed and roundly abused with fist and tongue.

Alderman Strain sent an officer in quest of Grace Graham, who, according to the sworn statements of Margaret Harrington, did strike that female on the head with a "hard substance." The parties reside on Second avenue, near the Birmingham bridge.

Catharine Reardon yesterday appeared before Alderman Strain and made an information charging Ann O'Hern with disorderly conduct. Held for a hearing.

Alderman McMasters' constable yesterday received a warrant for the arrest of Theodore Smith, a tavern keeper in Temperanceville, who is charged on oath of Peter J. Gordon, with selling liquor on Sunday and to minors.

A number of women and men, taken by the police from some disorderly houses, were yesterday severally fined and sent to the Workhouse according to their merits.

It is reported that a young woman, employed in this city, was gagged by three ruffians, when crossing the upper Birmingham bridge, Thursday night, and an attempt made by them to outrage her person. They failed in the consummation of their purpose, but unfortunately have thus far escaped arrest.

Wm. T. Arnold is held to answer, before Alderman Strain, a charge of larceny of a chest of carpenter tools. The charge is preferred by M. A. Davis.

Geo. W. Faust who has been accused by Mrs McCormick of embezzlement, was discharged by Alderman Humbert for want of evidence to sustain the accusation.

Several cases of drunks and disorderlies were disposed of yesterday.

George W. Carns was discharged from the police force yesterday for resting too much when he should be on duty.

John Scott, a hitherto deaf mute, was sent to the Work House yesterday for getting drunk and talking too much.

A man named Frankinhausen has been arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the Semple robbery, Allegheny.

Evans has just returned from the East with lots of new goods. Call and see them at his Popular Department Store, Masonic Hall Building.

Schurz vs. A. B. O. and F. S. M.

Carl Schurz may rail at President Grant, and find fault with everything, but he dare not say a single word against the American Buttonhole and Overseaming Family Sewing Machine; because it is so nearly perfect that a man even of his ingenuity of brain could not invent an objection to it. He dare not say that it is difficult to learn and hard to operate for the contrary is the truth, being easy to learn, and so light and graceful in its motion that a mere child can manipulate it with ease. Nor dare he say that it is complex and intricate in construction, and therefore liable to become disordered by use, for the very reverse is the case, being of the utmost simplicity of construction, avoiding the vexation and annoyance of daily and hourly fits of stubborness, which are a necessary consequence in the use of many other machines. James Espy, the agent holds himself in readiness at the corner of Fifth avenue and Market street (up stairs) to substantiate any or all of the above assertions.

10c will buy a box of good paper collars, neck-ties, bows, suspenders, Barlow knife, perfumery, hair oils, sleeve buttons, studs, and hundreds of other useful articles at Evans' Department Store.

Where to Get Them.

The new styles of cloths for spring garments are coming out, as well as the latest styles for the makeup. Messrs. Hespenheide & Co, No. 55 Sixth street, Pittsburgh, have made special arrangements to keep abreast of the times in this matter, and hence young gentlemen who are desirous of securing the earliest information in regard to what will be the prevailing styles during the ensuing season, can have all their desires gratified in this direction by leaving an order at this well-known and popular tailoring establishment. Everything going out from the house is guaranteed to be correct in every detail of fashion and of goods.

National Joy.

France will boast of her Napoleon with feelings peculiar to France; England with mingled gloom and glory will associate the names of Nelson and Trafalgar; Ireland, as she sweeps the wild harp of her country's misfortune, will sing of the eloquence of her Curran, and the martyrdom of her Emmett; but higher than all are the peans of the young gentlemen of Pittsburgh who secure some of those elegant suits of fashionable clothing which can alone come from the popular establishment of URLING, FOLLANSBEE & CO., southwest corner of Wood street and Fifth avenue.

Central Shaving Saloon.

One of the finest, neatest, as well as the tastiest of shaving saloons in the city will be found at the Central Hotel. Mr. Lewis Green and his able corps of tonsorial artists invariably give the best of satisfaction to the patrons who favor his establishment with a call. For a good bath or an easy shave, with clean towels, brushes and soap, for every man, go to the Central shaving saloon at the Central Hotel.

Re-animating the Hair.—When the hair ceases to draw from the scalp the natural lubricant which is its sustenance, its vitality is, as it were, suspended, and if not promptly attended to, baldness will be the certain result. The one sure method of avoiding such an unpleasant catastrophy is to use LYON'S KATHAIRON, which, when well rubbed into the scalp, will speedily re-animate the hair and prevent it from falling out. Besides that, this inimitable resuscitant and strengthener of the hair nourishes and stimulates its young and tender fibres, removes all obstacles to their growth in the shape of dandruff and dirt, and ultimately produces a new crop of hair, stronger, glossier, and twice as abundant as the old. As a hair dressing it is notably the most agreeable, refreshing and serviceable article ever placed upon a dressing-table. TH:T:S&W

$2.00.—It will pay you to look at Evans' 25c, 50c, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00 vases, just received, all new designs. The Department Store is the place for new goods.

JAMES BLACKMORE, Mayor.

Public Entertainments.

FIFTH AVENUE OPERA HOUSE.—"Uncle Tom's Cabin" was produced last evening by the stock company at this house, in a most creditable style. The cast was excellent, with the exception of the "St. Clair" by Mr. Everett, which was in bad taste, both in acting, conception and voice. Mr. Everett's judgment ought to dictate to him that he is totally unfit in the lines of business that he attempted last evening. The other characters were all well taken, especially the "Uncle Tom" by Mr. Edward's, was faultless, and "Eva" by little Lizzie Edwards, enlisted the sympathy of the audience by her successful portrayal of the "Angel child," to Uncle Tom, and showed the evidence of the thorough schooling through which, in her infant years, she is passing. The "Topsy" of Miss Nellie Sanford was the best we have ever seen; in style and make-up was unexceptionable. Uncle Tom matinee this afternoon, and a big and attractive bill to-night.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. Owens benefit can be considered quite a success. The comedy of the "Poor Gentleman" was splendidly given, and the company are deserving of the compliment of being well up in their parts, which made the piece run smooth and effectively. The Live Indian of Mr. Owens is very funny and kept the house in a continuous uproar by his eccentricities. This afternoon's matinee, Self, with Mr. Owens as "John Unit," and this evening his last appearance, he will give "Solon Shingle," "Toodles" and the "Live Indian," assuming five distinctive and separate characters. We expect to see the house crowded if not jammed.

MASONIC HALL.—"The Drunkard" will be performed at the matinee this afternoon, and last time this evening. A very good house was present last evening.

INDUSTRIAL ITEMS.

[From the American Manufacturer.]

MR. CHAS. KNAPP, of Pittsburgh, is having built at Allentown a large quantity of mining machinery, to be used at the coal and iron mines of his firm in Blair county.

THE Anderson & Wood Steel Works are running "double turn," with orders four months ahead. The demand for their product, for tool purposes is constantly increasing.

THE Wayne Iron Works, Brown & Co., are putting in two additional puddling furnaces, being but a small addition to the two hundred which we calculated would be added to the mills of Pittsburgh this season, but only a portion of the number Brown & Co. will find it necessary to add during the year.

THE Black Diamond Steel Works, Pittsburgh, employ 300 men in fabricating 25 tons per day of their article, which now has a world wide reputation, as the best steel for steam boiler purposes ever manufactured. They have orders for Ireland, England, Scotland, Australia, California, South America and China. Are there any other leading countries where it can be shipped? Have they not surpassed Alexander, in efforts to conquer the world?

THE Keystone Axle Works on 33d street, are doing a fine business in the manufacture of solid collar axles, fine finished, extra finished, and extra quality steel axles. They have a fine equipment of machinery, including atmospheric and trip hammers, and the best class of other machinery. And being the finest of practical workmen the members of the concern do not find it difficult to obtain a market for their excellent product in all quarters of the country.

THE Clinton Paper Mills, of Steubenville, O., are owned by the Pittsburgh Paper Manufacturing Company, and are managed by John B. Livingston, a thoroughly practical man. They employ about 70 men, and run night and day. They run exclusively on print paper—all rag, one quarter rag and one half rag, but none entirely straw. They use two 72-inch machines—one Fourdiniere and one cylinder machine—eight heater or rag engines, twelve drainers and vats and produce 7,000 lbs. of paper every 24 hours. Their sales in 1871 amounted to nearly $200,000, in Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis. Their product of the present year will largely exceed that of last. Their contracts embrace one with Dr. Hostetter, for his almanac, of $80,000.

THE temperance movement is gaining ground in Russia. In Moscow a co-operative society has been formed among the workmen, one of its rules being that the members pledge themselves to abstain from the use of strong alcoholic drinks. The Russians are notorious drinkers, and the magnitude of the evil has at length aroused them to the work of reform.
